OF THE OPENING OF SEPARATE ACCOUNTS IN RESPECT OF SHARES

69 Notwithstanding anything contained in Act XI of 1859 (an Act to improve the law relating to sales of land, &c), from the commencement of this Act no separate account shall be opened under the provisions of section 10 or of section 11 of the said Act in respect of the share of any applicant under the said sections otherwise than for a share corresponding with the character and extent of interest in the estate in respect of which such applicant is recorded as proprietor or manager under this Act

No separate account to be opened otherwise than in accordance with registered interest

70 When a proprietor of a joint estate who is recorded as proprietor of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, but not extending over the whole estate desires to pay separately the share of the Government revenue which is due in respect of such interest, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect The application must contain a specification of the land in which he holds such undivided interest and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of Government revenue heretofore paid on account of such undivided interest On the receipt of this application the Collector shall cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in section 10 of Act XI of 1859

Proprietor holding undivided interest in specific lands may apply for separate account

In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector shall open a separate account with the applicant, and shall credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it

The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

71 Section 12 of the said Act XI of 1859 shall apply to every application made under the last preceding section, and the effect and consequences of opening a separate account under the last preceding section shall be such and the same as are described in section 13 and in section 14 of Act XI of 1859

Application to close a separate account

Illustration

In a certain estate separate accounts have been opened under section 10 of Act XI of 1859 for the 4 annas share of A and also for the 5 annas share of B, the accounts of the remaining 7 annas share being kept jointly in the names of the remaining proprietors C D, and E

In course of time X has inherited A's 4 annas share, and also C's interest in the 7 annas share, which amounted to 3 annas X has also acquired by purchase 2 annas out of B's 5 annas share so that the interests in the estate are now distributed as follows —

X	9 annas
B	3 „
D & E	4 „

X if a recorded proprietor of the estate may apply to the Collector to close the separate account which is open in respect of A's 4 annas share and also the separate account which is open in respect of B's 5 annas share, as neither of these shares corresponds with the extent of interest held by any one proprietor, or held jointly by two or more proprietors in the estate, and in the same application X may apply for the opening of a separate account in respect of the 9 annas share which he now holds

Any of the other proprietors might also make a similar application

73 On receipt of such application the Collector shall cause a copy of the same to be published in the manner provided in section 10 of Act XI of 1859, and if within six weeks from the date of such publication no objection is made by any other recorded proprietor of the estate, the Collector shall close the separate account which then stands open, and shall open a separate account with the applicant as required by him, under section 10, or section 11 of Act XI of 1859, or under section seventy, as the case may be.

Separate account may be closed and another opened

74 If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the share in respect of which any separate account is open as aforesaid has not been broken up, and does still correspond with the character and extent of interest held by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers,

Procedure in case of objection

or object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him or that his interest in the estate is less or other than that claimed by him, or (when the application is in respect of a specific portion of the land of an estate or in respect of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate), object that the amount of Government revenue stated by the applicant to have been heretofore paid on account of such portion of land, or on account of the applicant's undivided interest therein, is not the amount which has been recognized by the other sharers as the Government revenue thereof, the Collector shall refer the parties to the Civil Court, and shall suspend proceedings until the question at issue is judicially determined.

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE ORISSA DIVISION FOR THE YEAR 1875-76

GENERAL DEPARTMENT —MISCELLANEOUS—No 2427

Calcutta, the 1st September 1876

READ—

The Annual Administration Report of the Commissioner of the Orissa Division for the year 1875-76

The Lieutenant-Governor acknowledges the value of this report, which shows indications throughout of Mr. Ravenshaw's knowledge of Orissa, and of his thoughtful solicitude for the interests of the people under his charge

2 An account is given of a temporary inundation in the Balasore district, and of a destructive and extraordinary whirlwind in April at a place about twenty miles due west of Balasore town, but the damage caused on these occasions was local, and the year may be described as being generally prosperous The rainfall was timely, sufficient showers in April and May favouring cultivation, while the "golden rains" of September and October matured a magnificent crop of rice The succeeding months were rainless, and therefore unfavourable to the cultivation of the cold-weather crops

3 Orissa has now had a favourable harvest of rice for several years in succession, and the export trade in rice, which is supplemented by an importation of piece-goods and other necessaries, is rapidly extending The circumstances of the people are in consequence undoubtedly improving year by year. It is stated that earthenware has been almost completely replaced by brass as a material for domestic utensils, that the stock of metal ornaments worn by the women and children is evidently increasing, that the wages of skilled labour of all kinds are rising, that the consumption of salt grows larger, and that each year shows also a rapidly increasing expenditure upon opium, the favourite luxury of the people. All these are symptoms of growing prosperity. Moreover, as is remarked by more than one officer, a good harvest is more profitable to the peasant now than formerly, now he can sell all his produce at a good price, whereas formerly a good harvest sent down the prices, and his produce realized comparatively little. The only persons who suffer are those residents of towns who live on a fixed income. These are naturally disappointed that excellent harvests do not result in greater cheapness of rice, and perceiving that the cause lay in the briskness of export, are said to have complained bitterly against the merchants. But the fact that the cultivators have been able to obtain a fair and remunerative price for their produce is, as is observed by the Magistrate of Balasore, "precisely the most encouraging fact that can be cited in relation to the material progress of the province. Improvement in communications has yielded this result, that plentiful harvests, which formerly to a great extent glutted the markets with an unsaleable commodity, now add at the same time to the wealth of the district and to the general resources of the country." The Lieutenant-Governor notices that the Pooree district has less trade than Balasore or Cuttack, and that material improvement is less marked in Pooree than in other parts of Orissa.

4. The salt manufacture in Orissa is an important industry, and yields a large revenue to Government. The Lieutenant-Governor requests that the local authorities will do everything in their power to foster it. The following statement shows the manufacture, revenue, and consumption of salt in Orissa during the year:—

	Amount of salt manufactured	Quantity of salt sold for consumption in the district	Salt revenue realized	Consumption by the total population per head
	Mds	Mds	Rs	S C
Cuttack	26,519	2,02,324	42,519	5 6
Pooree	67,170	96,264	3,85,446	5 0
Balasore	1,97,335	98,810	4,83,514	5 2
Total	2,91,024	3,97,398	9,11,479	5 3

The importation of cheap salt from Ganjam has largely increased, and the consumption per head of population has advanced from 5 seers in 1874-75 to 5 seers 3 chittacks in 1875-76.

5. Allusion was made in the Resolution on last year's report to the coal of the Talchere coal-fields, and it was said that the prospect of utilising the local coal-fields depended on the discovery of coal in places which are accessible by a water route. Mr. Ball, of the Geological Survey, was engaged in exploring the Talchere coal field during the past cold weather, and his report, which has recently been received, is unfavourable to the prospects of Orissa coal. He considers that no coal seam of a workable thickness and fairly good quality exists in this field, that a final and thorough exploration could only be effected at considerable expense, that there is no probability of there being a sufficient local consumption to support a proper mining establishment, and that there is, with the present expensive carriage, no prospect of a class of coals equal to Raneegunge steam coal competing successfully at the Orissa ports with Raneegunge coal sent from Calcutta by sea. A long land carriage appears to be unavoidable. The Lieutenant-Governor regrets that, under the circumstances described in this report, the Talchere project must, for the present at all events, be abandoned.

6 The Commissioner's report contains a very full section upon trade and commerce The following statement will show the value of the sea imports and exports during the past seven years —

	Cuttack		Pooree		Balasore
	Imports	Exports	Imports	Exports.	Imports	Exports
	Rs	Rs	Rs	Rs	Rs	Rs
1869 70	3,10,765	1 86 730	48 310	2 25 244	3 56 557	3,65,060
1870 71	10 32 3 5	6,69,756	22 947	2 23 922	3 00 785	4 43 070
1871 72	9 00 133	4 75 700	73 510	1 88 469	6 14 327	5 47 212
1872 73	8 49 547	8,21 429	74 919	1,95 513	2 50 188	3 99 208
1873-74	11 42 893	10 60 432	35 237	3 15 091	17 13 158	16,31 709
1874 75	9 14 659	17 00 71	64,161	5 52 259	26 26,837	21,38,305
1875 76	13,80 653	12,71,575	20,259	2,99,184	20,72,862	16,99,956
Total	65,28 005	61,86,093	3 29 613	19,99,645	79,35,014	72 24,550

This statement would primâ facie seem to show a rapid increase of the Orissa sea borne trade The case, however, in the Lieutenant-Governor's opinion, should be stated thus the famine of 1873-74 in Bengal and Behar gave a great and sudden impulse to the export trade of Orissa, which has been in a very considerable degree maintained after the cessation of the famine throughout the year 1875-76, also, there has been a nearly corresponding increase in the imports during a short series of years During the past year the total value of imports into Orissa was Rs 34,73,774, and the total value of exports was Rs 32,70,715 In 1869-70 the corresponding figures are only Rs 7,15,632 and Rs 7,77,034 The large increase that has taken place in imports is perhaps the most trustworthy test of progress in material improvement of the country and people Generally speaking, however, the trade of 1875-76 shows a falling off as compared with 1874-75, in consequence of the fall in the value of rice owing to abundant harvests in Bengal The large quantities exported to Calcutta during the famine were of course the result of an exceptional stimulus In this place it may be mentioned that passenger traffic to Chandbally is steadily increasing Fast steamers of light draft have been put on the line, and run twice a week These steamers bring many pilgrims on their way to Pooree, but the majority of passengers are native Ooriyahs going and coming on business or service The number of passengers during the past three years is as follows —

	Arrivals	Departures
1873-74	20,803	24,970
1874 75	29,004	26,646
1875-76	30 606	30,018

7 The Commissioner observes that the Prince of Wales' visit to India formed for some months the most important topic of public interest "A good many zemindars and others who could afford the journey went to Calcutta to be present at the Prince's arrival, foremost among these was the Rajah of Pooree, who for the first time in history crossed the sea The Rajah's pretentions to sanctity and exclusiveness prevented his associating with other Native Chiefs present in Calcutta, but I trust the journey has not been without some good results"

8 The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to see that in Orissa, as elsewhere, "very favourable notice is taken of the extreme usefulness of the Sub-Deputy Collectors and Surveyors" Some progress, but apparently not so much as is desirable, has been made in the registration and reorganization of putwarees, and in bringing into operation the putwaree rules

9 The Lieutenant-Governor cannot agree with Mr Ravenshaw's observation that the results of the registration of vital statistics in the selected areas are practically worthless On the contrary, some of the returns from Orissa show that a very close approach to accuracy has been obtained in some of the areas of that province, and it appears that, especially in the Pooree district, the registration throughout the whole district, general circles as well as selected circles, is carefully effected The results for the past year, as regards selected areas, have been published as follows —

	Death rate per 1,000 per annum		Birth rate per 1,000 per annum
	Rural circles	Urban circles	Rural circles.	Urban circles
Balasore	24 31	33 18	42 33	30 10
Cuttack	23 66	32 96	48 20	39 77
Pooree	28 85	25 20	51 02	22 88

And the returns of the present year continue to show that the figures are fairly accurate, and therefore of considerable comparative value But if the Commissioner adheres to his opinion that these returns are of little worth, he thereby incurs an absolute responsibility for rendering them trustworthy They certainly can be rendered trustworthy if the local authorities, under the supervision of the Commissioner, give due attention to the subject If the Commissioner thinks the returns untrustworthy, he is quite right in saying so But his duty does not end there On the contrary, it there commences to be very binding on him especially and on his officers to rectify the defect which he reports to exist

10 The irrigation results of the past year are unimportant, there was no active demand for canal water, and the navigation receipts show a small falling off At the same time great reductions were made in the working expenses It is to be feared that financial considerations will interfere for some time to come with the prosecution of the many improvements that are certainly much needed

11 The revenue derived in the Orissa province from land, salt, stamps, and excise during the past four years is shown in the following statement —

	Land	Salt	Stamps	Excise	Opium	Total
	Rs	Rs	Rs	Rs	Rs	Rs
1872 73	17,36,845	12,83,383	1,69 822	2,23,414	1,44 269	35 57,733
1873 74	17 39,110	12 79,046	1,84 019	2,62,910	1,67,703	36,32,788
1874 75	17,40,589	10,71 885	1,98,742	2,92 117	1,80,556	34,83,889
1875 76	15,74,729	9,11,479	2,22,100	2,93,765	1,92 661	31,94,734

The figures regarding land revenue have been derived from the Board of Revenue, the Commissioner's figures are wrong and based on error, the source of which is not apparent The decrease of land revenue in the year is due to a re-arrangement of kists, under which the amounts not demandable by law within the year are treated as advance collections The revenue from salt shows a decrease in consequence of the operation of the graduated scale of duty under Act X of 1874, and the free admission of Ganjam salt Stamps and excise both show a small increase, and the increase in excise revenue is accompanied by a satisfactory decrease in consumption The people of Orissa indulge excessively in opium, and although the price of the drug has been raised, consumption has not decreased

12 The repair of roads and communications has been well attended to The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to see that the Rajahs of Mohurbhunge and of Keonjhur have at their own expense constructed roads that will open up a large area of country The following interesting remarks regarding the maintenance of village roads are recorded by Mr Beames, the Magistrate of Cuttack —" I got numerous applications while in camp for little bits of work here and there, and it seems to me that the people rather like to be able to allude to the fact that they pay road cess, as giving them a claim on the Collector for petty local works I have sanctioned several such during the year—such as a small bridge at the entrance of a village, a few hundred yards of pathway across swampy land, the sloping of a river bank to allow cattle to cross, and the like—which give great satisfaction at small cost" These remarks show that the principles and object of the Road Cess Act are understood by the people and carried out by the Collector

13 As regards education, it is said that the Balasore district has made the best and most solid progress Mr Ravenshaw is to be congratulated on his success in the preparation of a set of elementary Ooriyah text-books suitable for primary schools, which will be brought into use as soon as printed The Lieutenant-Governor hopes that the appointment of a Deputy Collector to be Inspector of Schools in Orissa, who is himself a native of the province, will stimulate Ooriyah learning and encourage indigenous talent The Cuttack College was opened in January, and subscriptions amounting to Rs 6,000 for five years have been promised in its support The most liberal subscribers have been Rai Shamanund Dé, Bahadoor, Baboo Nemai Churun Bose, Baboo Brindabun Chunder Mondol, and Baboo Muddun Mohun Dass The Cuttack General Hospital, which is yearly extending its usefulness, and is well managed, owes its success to the energy and perseverance of Dr W D Stewart, the Civil Surgeon of Cuttack The Cuttack Medical School has been successfully started under the auspices of the same officer During the present year a vaccination circle has also been established in Orissa, where it was urgently required, and the Lieutenant-Governor's only regret is that vaccination was not earlier enforced in this division

14 The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to see that in Orissa all the District Magistrates acknowledge the aid afforded by Honorary Magistrates, the office is said to be popular, and to conduce to the loyalty and cordial co-operation of landed proprietors and native gentlemen in the administration of justice The conduct of the zemindars in the division is generally favourably reported on The names of Rai Shamanund Dé, Bahadoor, Baboo Nemai Churun Bose, Baboo Boikuntho Nath Dé, Baboo Boidyo Nath Pundit, Mohunt Narain Dass, and the zemindar of Sookinda, in Cuttack, are prominently mentioned by the Commissioner These gentlemen are all described as good and liberal landlords

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

CONVERSION OF THE OLD JAIL HOSPITAL AT MIDNAPORE INTO A CHARITABLE HOSPITAL

No 2099T, dated Darjeeling, the 29th August 1876

From—R L MANGLES, Esq, Offg Secy to the Govt of Bengal, Judicial Dept,
To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No 292, dated the 14th instant, submitting copy of a letter, with enclosures, from the Magistrate of Midnapore, proposing that the old jail hospital at that station, which is at present of little or no use to the Jail Department, may be made over to the Midnapore charitable dispensary for the purpose of being used as a ward for the accommodation of patients suffering from loathsome and contagious diseases The ward is to be called the "Ajudhyalall Khan Branch" of the dispensary, as Baboo Ajudhyalall Khan, zemindar of Midnapore, has promised to guarantee the payment of Rs 25 per month for five years to meet the cost of its maintenance

2 In reply, I am to inform you that, under the circumstances mentioned, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased, in compliance with your recommendation, to sanction the transfer of the building in question to the Committee of the Midnapore charitable dispensary, on the understanding that it will be kept in proper repair by the Committee, and that it will be given up to Government at any time on a three months' notice being given beforehand

3 I am at the same time to request that you will be so good as to convey an expression of the Lieutenant-Governor's thanks to Baboo Ajudhyalall Khan for his liberality in coming forward to meet the cost of maintaining the above ward, as also of the dispensary at his own house at Narajole, to which reference is made in the concluding portion of Mr Harrison's letter

No 292, dated Burdwan, the 14th August 1876

From—H A COCKERELL, ESQ, Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,

To—The Offg Secy to the Government of Bengal, Judicial Department

I HAVE the honor to submit copy of a letter, No 701, of the 3rd instant, with its enclosures in original, from the Magistrate of Midnapore, soliciting sanction to the transfer of the District Jail hospital to the Midnapore charitable dispensary The District Jail hospital is reported to be of very little use, owing to its distance from the jail, which affords sufficient accommodation for a hospital within its walls, and I therefore beg leave to recommend the Magistrate's proposal for sanction

2 The proposal of the Magistrate that the thanks of Government may be given to Baboo Ajudhyalall Khan for his liberalities will, I trust, be favorably considered by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor

No 701, dated Midnapore, the 3rd August 1876

From—H L HARRISON, ESQ, Magistrate of Midnapore,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division

I HAVE the honor to submit the following proposal for the transfer of the Jail hospital to the Midnapore dispensary for the sanction of Government

2 As will appear from the accompanying plan, the District Jail hospital is a detached building removed some distance from the District Jail and not far from the dispensary, and ever since the Central Jail has been opened it has been of little or no use

3 The District Jail is so built as to afford much accommodation for a hospital within its walls, and as escapes have taken place from the hospital and in any case extra expense is requisite to supply a guard for it, the hospital has been some three months ago removed inside the jail, and the former hospital abandoned and left untenanted

4 For years past the dispensary has coveted this hospital, as being an alms-house by foundation, and also a pilgrim hospital, the present building is always full of repulsive cases, pilgrims in the last stage of dysentery or cholera, or paupers with filthy habits and loathsome diseases, and the effect has been to deter respectable persons from using the dispensary as in-patients, owing to the impossibility of effecting complete segregation with the present limited accommodation

5 Accordingly on the recent abandonment of the Jail hospital I wrote to the Inspector-General of Jails, asking if he would raise any objection to its transfer to the dispensary, and copy of his reply assenting to the transfer is hereto annexed

6 I next consulted with the Civil Surgeon as to the additional cost of establishment which would be needed and also the cost of repairs to the building, and finding that Rs 25 per mensem would suffice, I suggested to the wealthy zemindar of Midnapore, Baboo Ajudhyalall Khan, that he should guarantee the payment of Rs 25 per month, to meet the cost of keeping up the dispensary, when acquired, for a period of five years, and that it should be called after him, viz the Ajudhyalall Khan Branch, and he has promised to do so

7 Under these circumstances, I have the honor to request that you will ask Government, unless you see any objection, to transfer the building for the purposes set forth above The dispensary will keep it in repair, and it might be agreed that Government can reclaim it at any time by giving three months' notice It will be used as a hospital for loathsome and contagious diseases, and as it contains several wards well separated, each of these classes can also be kept apart The main dispensary will then be used for out door relief, for surgical cases, and medical cases of a cleanly character The proposal, if agreed to, will confer a great boon on the town and pilgrims, and it will be advantageous to Government, as the building will be kept in repair instead of having to be repaired by the Public Works Department I would also suggest that the thanks of Government may be given to Baboo Ajudhyalall Khan, who has also just guaranteed for five years the entire local income of a dispensary at his own house, Narajole.

No 4997, dated Alipore, the 14th June 1876

From—MAJOR G M BOWIE, Offg Inspector-General of Jails,

To—The Superintendent of the Midnapore Jail

WITH reference to your No 194, dated 14th ultimo, I have not the slightest objection to offer to the Magistrate's proposal to convert the old Jail hospital into a charitable dispensary.

INTRODUCTION OF THE LAND REGISTRATION ACT VII (B C) OF 1876

REVENUE DEPARTMENT —LAND REVENUE

Calcutta, the 8th September 1876

THE Land Registration Act No VII (B C) of 1876 came into force on the 23rd August 1876, the date on which it was published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General By a notification under section 39 of the Act, published in the Calcutta Gazette on the 6th September 1876, the Lieutenant-Governor has fixed, for all districts in the Lower Provinces of Bengal, a term of six months, from the 1st November 1876, as the time within which proprietors and managers in possession of estates, or revenue-free properties, or of any interest therein, shall be required to apply for registration of their names, and of the character and extent of their interests Instructions have been given, through the Board of Revenue, for the issue of the necessary notices under section 41 of the Act

2 The Lieutenant-Governor desires that all Collectors and Deputy Commissioners should be specially warned to take the greatest care that the above date, viz six months from the 1st November 1876, is duly notified at the different places in their respective districts in the manner prescribed by section 41

It is also the Lieutenant-Governor's wish that each Commissioner of a Division should, within six weeks from the receipt of this order in his office, make a special, though brief, report to Government, stating that these instructions have been carried out in each district of his division.

3 As it is of great importance that the objects and requirements of the law should be distinctly understood, it should be carefully explained by

Collectors and Deputy Commissioners to all landholders that, under section 40 of the Act, they may render themselves liable to disabilities or penalties if they fail to apply for registration within the time allowed to them This period will expire on the 30th April 1877, and in any district in which the notices under section 41 shall have been published by the 1st November 1876 (and it is hoped that this will be the case in all districts), these disabilities and penalties will attach, on the 1st May 1877, to all proprietors who shall not have registered their names and interests by that date

4 The Lieutenant-Governor, as at present advised, is not prepared to authorize the exemption of any estates from registration under section 43 of the Act, but upon this point he desires to await an expression of the opinion of the Board of Revenue If the Member in charge shall see fit to make any recommendation in favor of such exemption in any district, it shall be duly considered

5 Section 13 authorizes the Board, under certain circumstances, and with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, to prescribe special rules for the registration of revenue-free lands in any district to the circumstances of which the ordinary procedure may appear not to be applicable The Lieutenant-Governor requests that the Member in charge will report whether he has any recommendations to offer under this section

6 The attention of all district officers is invited to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 of the Act, which prescribe the procedure to be adopted in the case of disputes as to possession, succession, or acquisition by transfer A discretion is left to the Collector to determine the question summarily, or to refer the matter in dispute to the civil court It is important that this discretion should be judiciously exercised, and that, in making a reference to the civil court, care should be taken to furnish accurately and completely the several heads of information required by section 58 The Lieutenant-Governor trusts that every Collector will carefully study these sections of the law, so as to have a clear understanding of what is required from him

7 The Lieutenant-Governor also desires to draw the attention of Collectors to section 64, which prescribes the levy of fees on the registration of transfers of revenue-paying and revenue-free lands These fees are already levied under the old law, but the amount hitherto received under this head has been inconsiderable, owing to the very general neglect to register transfers It may be expected that the receipts on this account will in future be largely increased, and this will, in some measure, compensate the Government for the additional expense which it will be necessary to incur in carrying out the provisions of the Act At the same time, the fees imposed by section 64 are so moderate in amount that the payment of them can be no hardship to any proprietor It will be the duty of Commissioners to satisfy themselves that the levy of these fees is regularly carried out in all the districts of their respective divisions

8 Under section 88 of the Act, the Board of Revenue is required to make, within four months of the date on which the Act comes into force, rules to regulate the form of registers, the procedure regarding applications and enquiries, and for the general purposes of the Act This period of four months will expire on the 22nd December next The law does not require that rules framed under this section should receive the sanction of Government, but the Lieutenant-Governor will be glad to receive a copy of such rules as may be prescribed by the Board The Lieutenant-Governor also desires to invite an expression of any general suggestions which the Member in charge may have to make for the effectual carrying out of the objects of the Act.

9 In conclusion, the Lieutenant-Governor begs to entreat the most earnest attention of all revenue officers to this registration, a measure which is of the greatest importance to the welfare of the landholding community in these provinces For the general supervision to be exercised under the Act, His Honor confidently relies upon the Board of Revenue, and he trusts that the co-operation of the several Commissioners and District Officers will not be wanting to ensure the satisfactory working of this useful law

H J REYNOLDS,

RESOLUTION ON THE ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE SUBURBAN MUNICIPALITY FOR 1875-76

MUNICIPAL

Calcutta, the 11th September 1876

READ—

Letter No 16M M, dated 21st August 1876, from the Commissioner, Presidency Division, submitting the Annual Report of the Municipality of the Suburbs of Calcutta for the year 1875-76

Read again—

The Report for the previous year, and the orders passed thereon

The Report received with the Commissioner's remarks on the administration of the Suburban Municipality during the past year is generally satisfactory It shows that collections have been regularly and carefully made, that the proportion of outstanding collections was comparatively small, that fair progress has been made in carrying out sanitary and other improvements, and that a considerable balance remained at the credit of the Municipality at the close of the year

2 Income —The total receipts of the Town Fund amounted to Rs 4,34,396, and thus exceeded the estimate by Rs 23,196, and the receipts of the previous year by Rs 21,234 In part this increase is merely nominal, and it appears that the proceeds of the house tax and of the carriage and horse tax, which are the chief sources of the municipal income, were almost precisely the same as in 1874-75 It is not to be expected that there should be any great increase annually in the proceeds of the former tax, which is already levied at its maximum rate The Lieutenant-Governor notices that, as a necessary consequence of the improvements effected in the course of the year by the clearance of certain village sites, there has been a diminution in the number of rate-payers It is necessary that the Municipality should make some sacrifices in this direction with a view to sanitary improvement The Lieutenant-Governor apprehends, however, that any losses in this particular will be temporary only, and that eventually the improved value of property will result in augmented revenues The receipts of the Conservancy Department, amounting to Rs 73,559, were again in excess of the estimates, and show an increase of Rs 20,652 over the collections of the previous year Against this increase must be set off the expense of increased conservancy establishments It should be an object, however, so to regulate these establishments that their whole cost shall be covered by the fees The miscellaneous receipts of the Municipality also considerably exceeded the estimate Including a grant made by Government from the Fire Brigade Fund, they amounted, however, to Rs 32,798 only, against Rs 44,387 in the previous year

3 Expenditure —The total expenditure of the Municipality was Rs 4,74,775, against Rs 4,34,396 in the previous year The charges of the Town Fund having thus exceeded its receipts by Rs 40,379, the balance of Rs 78,560 with which the year opened was reduced at its close to Rs 38,181 The excess expenditure of the year, which exceeded the estimates by Rs 13,575, is accounted for chiefly by the fact that it was thought desirable, out of the funds available, to spend an increased amount on roads, for which a further special allotment was made, and that a grant of Rs 10,000 was paid out of the Fire Brigade Fund into the General Revenue Account under the sanction of Government The Lieutenant-Governor observes, however, that a sum of Rs 10,000 would seem to have been charged improperly under the head of "Establishment and repairs of roads," while it was spent on the improvement of the water-supply, and should have been shewn as expended on "Works of public utility" He also observes that, under the head of "Miscellaneous," a sum of Rs 18,919 is included as if finally expended, when it really is chargeable to the Suspense Account The amount apparently was given as advances for stone As it is largely in excess of what apparently was found necessary in the previous year, the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that care will be taken to have the advances worked off promptly

4 The details of the disbursements call for no orders from Government. The Lieutenant-Governor is, however, glad to observe that the Municipality has taken some steps to improve the water supply of the Suburbs, and that a considerable sum for this purpose was expended during the year What has been done is a very small instalment of what is required, and it is to be hoped that, now that a beginning has been made, a determination will be shewn to carry on the work, the importance of which it cannot be over-estimated

5 In conservancy matters some improvements have been effected The new system of scavengering was worked with an increased measure of success Some of the worst bustees near the Circular Road have been improved Attention is also said to have been given to the state of the lands near the General Hospital, but the Lieutenant-Governor gathers that, though nuisances have been somewhat abated, the results are not satisfactory The Commissioner, with reference to the absence of proper sanitary precautions in certain quarters of the Municipality, draws attention to the necessity of applying Part VII of the new Municipal Act to the Suburbs This is no doubt essential to the enforcement of a proper system of conservancy, and the Lieutenant-Governor desires that no time may be lost in submitting the necessary application

6 The importance of giving an increased attention to sanitary matters is forcibly illustrated by the high death-rate prevailing in parts of the Suburbs The general health of the Municipality is said to have been much lower in the past than during the two preceding years Cholera was unusually prevalent, and a large number of cases of bowel-complaints and of intermittent fever occurred throughout the year in every part of the Suburbs The ratio of mortality was 56 56 per thousand, against 46 93 in the previous year In November it attained the high figure of 87 40 per thousand Excluding the district in which the Pauper Hospital is situated, the mortality appears to have been especially great in Mateabrooze and Chitpore, the ratio having been 78 67 per thousand in the former district, and 68 60 in the latter The proper sanitation of these places, as well as the provision of wholesome drinking water for the inhabitants, should receive special attention on the part of the Municipality

7 Among the Municipal Commissioners, Captain Lawrell, Rajah Harendra Krishna, Moulvie Abdool Luteef, Khan Bahadoor, Baboos Jadoolal Mullick and Prankissen Mookerjee, and the Hon'ble Baboo Jaggadanund Mookerjee appear to have been particularly assiduous in their attendance at the meetings Some of these gentlemen, as well as Prince Mahomed Roheemooddeen, and Baboos Grish Chunder Ghose and Sham Churn Law, also gave great assistance in the disposal of municipal cases The Lieutenant-Governor desires that his acknowledgments may be conveyed to these gentlemen for the service rendered by them

8 Mr Sterndale has continued to earn the favourable opinion of his employers, and the Lieutenant-Governor also notices with pleasure the favourable testimony borne by Mr Sterndale to the good conduct of several of his subordinates

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

R L MANGLES,

Offg Secy to the Govt of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE CHITTAGONG DIVISION FOR THE YEAR 1875-76

GENERAL DEPARTMENT —MISCELLANEOUS —No 2492

Calcutta, the 9th September 1876

READ—

The Annual Administration Report of the Commissioner of Chittagong for the year 1875-76

THE Lieutenant-Governor acknowledges the receipt of a full and careful report from Mr Lowis, who was Commissioner of the Division for the whole year

2 The rainfall during the year 1875 was excessive, and the fall of August culminated in a flood both in Chittagong and in Noakholly, the like of which is said not to have been witnessed within memory At the head quarters of the Noakholly district 32 inches of rain fell during one week from the 26th July to the 2nd August, and for some period the water lay 15 feet deep over cultivated fields The rivers became undistinguishable in the expanse of water, and boats passed and re-passed everywhere across the flooded tracts. This flood was succeeded by a drought, a few showers fell in September, but the rest of the year was marked by an almost total absence of rain The flood caused much injury to the early rice crops and other produce, and to houses and cattle, while the combined effects of both the flood and the drought damaged the prospects of the harvest The season was thus a singularly unfavorable one, and there was not more than half an average outturn of rice throughout the division

3 It is very satisfactory to observe that notwithstanding these untoward circumstances there was no complaint of distress from any part of the country. The people are described as being in a solvent and substantial position Every man has either direct or indirect interests in land, and a fertile soil and high wages both at home and in the neighbouring labor markets of British Burmah render the condition of the cultivators and the lower orders of the people easy and prosperous It is a custom with the agriculturalists to store up two or three years' supply of food for their own maintenance before selling any portion of their harvests, and they have resources other than rice crops, such as the sale of betel-nuts and cocoanuts from the trees around their homesteads, which provide them with sufficient means for ordinary expenses

4 The year was an unhealthy one in consequence of the unfavourable season, and small-pox, cholera, and fever are all said to have been more prevalent than usual The insalubrity of the town of Chittagong itself is again specially commented on by the Commissioner The conservancy arrangements in the town have hitherto been very defective, and improvements have not been accepted by the native members of the Municipal Committee without objection, but it is hoped that the sanitary interests of the town have now been adequately settled with the concurrence of the townspeople A regular system of drainage and a supply of good drinking water are contemplated, and twenty-five thousand rupees have been appropriated by the Municipality for meeting the cost of these schemes

5 The trade of Chittagong shows at present signs of contraction, as was stated in the recently published Resolution on the Chittagong Port Trust

6 Of all the products of Lower Bengal, rice alone finds its way to Chittagong, and the export trade of the place is only active during the rice season, a period of about six months in each year, and unless other produce can be attracted there, such as jute, oil-seeds, or hides, the trade cannot be expected to expand The rice trade, moreover, has been decreasing during the last four years In 1872 73 the exports were 103,711 tons, in 1873-74, 71,686 tons, in 1874-75, 45,072 tons, and in 1875-76 only 26,335 tons In the interests of Chittagong itself, therefore, it is of importance to open up and improve its means of communication with other ports of Bengal, and an application is now before

Government, strongly recommended by the Commissioner, urging that facilities may be afforded for encouraging a jute trade between Naraingunge and Chittagong But at present the jute of Naraingunge finds its way to Calcutta for the most part along the Eastern Bengal Railway, and although the situation of Chittagong and its accessibility for shipping doubtless point out that port as being naturally a very important trading centre for Eastern Bengal, the proposal that Government should encourage the trade between Naraingunge and Chittagong by special assistance, involves a consideration of other interests which it is possible may conflict with those of Chittagong The Lieutenant-Governor can only say that, as far as circumstances will justify his doing so, he will fairly consider the claims of Chittagong and the expressed desire of some of the most influential merchants of Naraingunge to be able to open out a trade with the sea-port that is nearest to their place of business.

7 The Commissioner's report is in other respects also full of suggestions for the improvement of the communications of his division, and of the development of the resources of Chittagong as a port A proposal is made for the construction of a canal connecting the Naaf river with Cox's Bazar in the south of the district It is stated that, whether for the improvement of the Chittagong Port, or for bringing extensive waste lands under cultivation, or for the convenience of the people of Chittagong emigrating every year in large numbers through Cox's Bazar to Arracan, the construction of this canal is "a crying necessity" The Commissioner again urges the re-excavation of the Moheshkally Canal, a subject alluded to by the Lieutenant-Governor in the Resolution on last year's report, and the construction of a canal to connect the waters of the Fenny and Halda rivers in the north of the district Lastly, a proposal is mooted of opening up a canal in the Noakholly district to connect the Big and Little Fenny rivers The Lieutenant-Governor observes that the question whether these projects can be undertaken or not will depend very much on the ability of the local Committees of the districts to meet the necessary expenditure, but there can be little doubt that the schemes would all be useful as developing the resources of the division, and His Honor will consider, in the Public Works Department, what further steps, if any, can be taken to carry them into effect.

8 The tea industry in Chittagong is rapidly progressing, and some experiments on a limited scale have also been made with coffee cultivation, which have proved successful. The total outturn of tea from the division is estimated at 431,554lbs It is said that tea cultivation has already attracted the attention of the natives of the place, and that a few small gardens have already been opened by some of the neighbouring zemindars In 1871-72 the value of tea exported from Chittagong was Rs 2,52,141, in 1875-76 the value was Rs 4,79,087

9 The extension of the rural sub-registry offices has been attended with marked success in this division During the past year no less than 27,482 deeds were registered in Chittagong, and 21,460 in Noakholly. The bulk of the registrations are in connection with land, and the figures showing the number of perpetual (81,030) and temporary (2,643) leases registered in Chittagong during the last five years support the belief that temporary leases in this district are the exception rather than the rule This large number of leases illustrates also the minute sub-division of land in the district

10 The Commissioner, who is also by virtue of his office Civil Judge of the division, has submitted an interesting report on the administration of civil justice, which shows to what a surprising degree the conduct of civil litigation is part of the business of the Chittagong people Out of 3,553 suits instituted in three courts only, all situated within the thana of Putteah, the value of 15 per cent of the cases was less than five rupees, and the value of 90 per cent of the cases was less than one hundred rupees, the minimum value was as low as four annas, and in twenty-one cases the value was less than one rupee It would be a legitimate inference from these figures to suppose that the people of Chittagong had confidence in the rectitude and ability of the courts, and the Lieutenant-Governor observes that Mr Lowis says that "public confidence in the civil courts is said to be increasing."

11. The re-settlement of the noabad lands in the Chittagong district is now in progress, and the Assistant Settlement Officer, Mr Veasey, is reported to have discharged his heavy duties with tact and discrimination. The work to be done is considerable, and the Commissioner estimates that it will take another four or five years to bring the operations to a close It is impossible at present to say what the eventual increase in revenue will be, the Collector estimates the increase at six lakhs of rupees, but Mr Lowis rightly characterizes this as too sanguine an estimate.

12 Both Mr Kirkwood, the Magistrate of Chittagong, and Mr Porch, the Magistrate of Noakholly, have taken a warm interest in all matters relating to education It appears that a great impetus has been given to the cause of education during the year, particularly to primary education The number of pathsalas and of students has largely increased To some extent also female education is reported to be spreading in these districts

13 The local Committees in the district of Chittagong are reported to have worked well, and the members of the Committees are said to evince a lively interest in the proceedings under discussion The liberal conduct of Baboo Goluck Chunder Chowdhry of Chittagong, who contributed Rs 10,000 towards the raising of the Chittagong Government School to the status of a high school, and towards the promotion of several other acts of public utility, has already been acknowledged by Government in terms of suitable commendation

Cooch Behar Divn.	16	Darjeeling, Sept. 8, '76	5 72	Weather—Very high wind with rain on the 2nd instant and rain every day since but not heavy. The crops are still progressing favourably. The rain has extended to the plains, and has done good, but the fall there is not so much as on the hills.
	17	Julpigoree „ 9 „	4 19	Weather—Very changeable. There has been favourable rain all over the district, and the late rice is in a most promising state. Cholera has quite disappeared.
		Cooch Behar „ 7,	2 51	Weather—Generally bright and sunny but varied with some showers of rain. 1 50 inches of rain fell on the 2nd September. The weather was not so hot as in the previous week. It was cool at night. The want of rain is beginning to be felt. The young plants of amun dhan look yellow in places. Unless we have good rain soon this crop will suffer in all except the low lands, where water will lodge. The crop report from Meckligunge is still very favourable. The general health is good.

BEHAR.
Patna Divn.	26	Patna Sept. 11,* '76	81	The bhadoi crops are doing well. More rain is still wanted for the winter rice. Health of the district is improving. The number of cholera cases is daily diminishing.
	27	Gya, „ 9 „	1 39	Weather—Cloudy and warm. Maximum in the shade 91 0. The bhadoi crops are being reaped, the outturn promises to be good. Transplantation of the dhan crop is nearly finished. It requires more rain on the high lands.
	28	Shahabad 9,* „	56†	Weather—Cloudy and hot. There has been very little rain to the south of the district, and the crops are suffering, both in Bhubhooah and Sasseram. The rain is also wanted in the northern sub-divisions, though in Buxar a fair amount has fallen in parts.
	29	Durbhunga „ 8	94	Weather—Cloudy, with occasional partial showers. Wind generally from the east. The bhadoi crops are being harvested in most parts of the district and the outturn is generally good. More rain is urgently required for the aghani crops which have already suffered, though not to any great extent, from the want of it.
	30	Mozufferpore, 9 „	1 57‡	Weather—Cloudy and cool, with strong east wind at the beginning of the week and west wind at the end. In the Hajeepore sub-division 1 70 inches of rain has fallen, but more is wanted for all the crops. The sub-divisional officer reports that owing to the injurious effects of the strong winds, the maize crop does not promise to be more than eight annas. In the Seetamarhee sub-division the rainfall is 21 only, and some heavy showers are urgently required. The winter rice is reported to be dying off in some places for want of rain. In the Mozufferpore sub-division more rain is much wanted for the rice crop especially on the high lands. The bhadoi crops are being harvested and the outturn will be above the average.

NOTE

Barometric Pressure —The pressures in column 2 of the above table for all stations below 500 feet are reduced from those given in column 3 of the table on the previous page, by adding the weight of a column of air and of the height of the station at the temperatures give in column 17 For stations above 500 feet elevation the reduction is made by Captain Allan Cunningham's table,—" Prof papers on Indian Engineering, No CXIII " The temperatures at the sea-level are taken from column 3 of the above table

Temperature —The temperatures in column 3 are reduced from those in column 17 on the preceding page, by adding 1° Fahrenheit for every 450 feet

Wind Resultant —The resultant wind direction and its comparative predominance are calculated from the whole number of wind observations recorded during the month The relative predominance in the direction of the resultant is given as a percentage of the whole number of observations The direction is computed in the usual way by Lambert's formula

Clouds —This column gives the average proportion of clouded sky, a cloudless sky being indicated by 0, and one completely overcast by 10

The above being all comparable, afford the data for constructing a meteorological chart for the month, which will show the isobaric and isothermal lines and the resultant wind directions The wind directions may be represented by arrows of varying length proportioned to the prevalence of the wind To these may be added the rainfall from the previous tables

The mean barometer, as likewise the dry and wet bulb thermometer means, are derived from the twenty-four hourly observations made during the day

The dew-point is computed with the Greenwich constants The figures in column 10 represent the humidity of the air, the complete saturation of which being taken at unity The receiver of the lower rain gauge is 1½ feet, and that of the anemometer 70 feet 10 inches above the level of the ground The velocity of wind, as indicated by Robinson's anemometer, is registered from noon to noon

The extreme variation of temperature during the past seven days	13 5
The maximum temperature during the past seven days	90 5

No 954A, dated Naini Tal, the 16th June 1876

From—B W. COLVIN, ESQ , Offg Secy to the Govt of the North-Western Provinces,
To—The Offg Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department

I AM directed to forward, for the consideration of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General in Council, an extract from a letter, dated 13th May 1876, regarding the solemnization of marriages by Methodist Episcopalian ministers

2 Under the Marriage Act (XV of 1872, Section 5,) marriages can be formed without licenses by persons "who have received episcopal ordination" Mr Parker desires to be informed whether Methodist Episcopalian ministers fall within this category

Extract from a letter, dated 13th May 1876, from the Superintendent, Methodist Episcopalian Missions for Rohilkhand, to Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces

MAY I also be permitted to ask one question In the Marriage Act XV of 1872, part I, paragraph 5, (1) (page 9), it is stated that "marriages may be solemnized in India" (1) "by any person who has received episcopal ordination, provided that the marriage be solemnized according to the rules, rites, ceremonies, and customs of the church of which he is a minister"

This cannot refer alone to the Church of England and the Church of Rome, for in part IV, paragraph 32—"Any person who has received episcopal ordination, but who is not a clergyman of the Church of England or of the Church of Rome," is referred to

The ordained ministers of the "Methodist Episcopal Church" in India have all received "episcopal ordination" The form of ordination is the same, or nearly the same, as of the Church of England Our ministers are all under the direction of the bishops of our Church No one but a bishop can ordain to the ministry in our Church Our own American Government accepts our Church as episcopal

Hence, with the above clause in the law, and with these well-known facts concerning the Methodist Episcopal Church, are not all ministers of this Church, who have been duly ordained by a bishop, authorized to solemnize marriages without any further license?

The importance of this question lies in the fact that frequent transfers all over India cause much correspondence as marriage registrars, while if by virtue of the Act we are authorized, having been duly episcopally ordained, then all this extra licensing and changing of licenses each year, as men are transferred, is useless As all of our ordained ministers are members of conferences which meet annually, and also under the direction of a bishop, there could be no danger of abuse or looseness in this work, as our own law in our Church does not allow any one to solemnize marriages who is not a regularly ordained minister

As we are thus regularly episcopally ordained, we trust that Government may consider it expedient to allow us to solemnize marriages by virtue of our ordination, as our own Government does in the United States of America

To—The Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces

I AM directed to acknowledge your letter No. 954A, dated the 16th June last, and in reply to say that the Officiating Advocate General having been consulted, has expressed his opinion that it would be unsafe to accept clergymen of the Episcopal Methodist Church of America as coming within the purview of Section 5, Clause 1 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act of 1872.

RESOLUTION

The 14th September 1876 — It has accidentally come to the notice of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor that Mr H W Stevens, the Engineer of the Raj Durbhunga, has procured from England an assistant to aid him in preparing architectural designs

2 The exact terms and circumstances under which the engagement was made are not known, nor yet whether the arrangement had the sanction of the Court of Wards, but it is understood that the engagement has been made for three years

3 The Lieutenant-Governor does not consider that any authority short of Government should have the power of engaging persons out of India, and the more so as generally such engagements must of necessity involve a contract for a considerable length of time

4 His Honor has accordingly been pleased to direct that in future no appointment is to be given, or engagement is to be made, with any person out of India, save on reference to, and under the orders of, Government, and that officers who make or authorise such appointment or engagement shall be held personally responsible for such act in all respects

ORDER —Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to
for information

Ordered also that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Revenue Department of this office for information, with a request that the necessary action may be taken in that department in respect to the Court of Wards

The only change that took place amongst the members arose from the transfer of Mr A Weekes to Hooghly He was succeeded as Vice-Chairman by Mr D W M Testro As will be seen from the return of attendance given above, the majority of the non-official members take but very little interest in the discharge of their functions The Committee was summoned to meet eight times during the year On two occasions a quorum was not obtained, and on several occasions a number barely sufficient to form a quorum attended

The meeting most largely attended was that of the 2nd July, at which the Chairman's proposition that maximum rates should be levied for 1875-76 was negatived and three-quarter rates fixed, all the native members present voting for the lesser rates The marginally named gentlemen did not attend any of the meetings

3 Receipts of the year—The year opened with a balance of Rs 31,063-14-4, which, added to Rs 25,000, the allotment for the year, and the receipts from sources detailed in the margin, raised the total income to Rs 80,298-0-7 The budget estimate for the year shows an income of Rs 42,300 only The increased income is owing to the opening balance being larger than was anticipated, an adjustment in account of Rs 7,776 8-3 drawn from deposits of farmers of ferries and toll-bars and credited as rent which was overdue from 1872, and an item, Rs 181-10-6, credited under heads "Miscellaneous" and "Road cess fines" The slight increase or decrease under other heads needs no comment

Regarding the revenue from tolls, the Chairman directs me to enter in this place the following remarks —"With regard to the revenue from tolls, it may be a question whether it ought not to be abandoned altogether now that road cess is levied The turnpikes are, I think, always abolished in England when the rate for roads is levied I should be glad to see tolls abolished They only yield Rs 8,000 or 9,000 a year, and the system never has worked satisfactorily in this country "

4 Expenditure—The total expenditure in cash and value of grain, shown in account during the year under report, was Rs 1,91,102-5-10 The large apparent increase over the sanctioned budget estimate was on account of Rs 1,135-15 5 spent in cash and Rs 1,24,843-5-2, the value of 41,614 maunds 16 seers 15 chittacks of Government rice, spent on relief-works, started for the most part in 1873-74, but not adjusted in account until 1874-75 Of the above sum, Rs 34,116 1-4 was adjusted and charged to several roads by the Executive Engineer in November 1874 and in January 1875, Rs 1,135-15-5 was adjusted in January 1875, and Rs 90 727-3-10 was adjusted in September 1875, by charging the amount against the road on which the grain was spent by the sub-divisional officers The total amount of expenditure in cash and grain against each road is shown in No 6, Part II of the annual accounts The progress made during the past year in respect of works regularly undertaken, and the expenditure actually incurred in cash for each work, will be shown in this report The total of adjustments shown above is Rs 1,25,979-4-7 Deducting this from Rs 1,84,698-2-9, the total of expenditure on original works and repairs, as shown in the annual account, the balance is Rs 58,718-14-2 The expenditure of Rs 58,250-14-2 is accounted for in the present report, and the balance, Rs 468, represents the salaries of malees attached to the several inspection bungalows

5 On collection of revenue and Committee's control—The expenditure under this head was Rs 4,387-13-0, of which Rs 3,581-6 9 was spent on establishment under the Road Cess Deputy Collector, and Rs 806 6-3 on Vice-Chairman's office establishment The expenditure on account of road cess establishment exceeded the provision (Rs 2,376) made in the budget by Rs 1,205-6 9 The increase is due to the employment of a temporary establishment for statistical purposes, as directed in Government order No 2400, dated 22nd August 1873, and road cess form 42

Original works—Almost all the road works in this district were executed through the agency of the Public Works Department Rs 10,158-13 has still to be paid on account of this agency, calculated at 25 per cent of the total expenditure, as required by paragraph 41 of the Government Proceedings, No 1209, of the 8th March 1875 The accounts show an expenditure of Rs 33,152 14 8 on original works Excluding adjustments of Rs 1,016-0-4 on account of grain spent in 1873 74 by the sub divisional officer of Raneegunge, Rs 284 1 spent under similar circumstances by the Executive Engineer, and the item Rs 1,125 15 5 already alluded to in paragraph 4, the balance is Rs 30,686 13 11 Of this sum, Rs 11,548 6-9 was paid on account of compensation for lands taken for relief roads during 1874, as per margin, and the balance, Rs 19,138 7-2, was actually expended on works, Rs 12 933 3-8 was spent by the Public Works Department, and the remainder, Rs 6,205-3-6, was spent by the Cutwa Sub divisional Officer and the Manager, Equitable Coal Company, Raneegunge

BURDWAN,
The 6th January 1876

D W M TESTRO,
Vice-Chairman of the Burdwan District Road Committee

No 35, dated Camp Burjora, the 17th December 1875

From—W. R LARMINIE, ESQ, Magistrate and Chairman of the District Road Cess Committee, Bankoora,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division

I HAVE the honor to submit the following annual report on the operation of the Bankoora District Road Fund during the past year, from 1st October 1874 to 30th September 1875

2 The following gentlemen were members of the committee during the year under review, and the subjoined table shows the number of meetings each attended —

,, Nadiar Chand Roy	7	2	9
,, Nobin Chundra Chatterjee	1	8	9

3 It will be observed that not a single member was absent from all the meetings, although many attended only once or twice It was my object in recommending the nomination of members of the committee in 1872 that all parts of the district should be represented, and this object, I think, was fairly enough attained, but it cannot be said that the interests of all parts of the district were with equal fairness represented by the appearance at the meetings of the committee of gentlemen living in, or having local knowledge of, those parts

4 There were three additions to the list of members during the year, viz, Baboo Juggobundho Khan, Nobin Chundra Chatterjee, and the Executive Engineer, Midnapore Division, the former of whom was elected Vice-Chairman at a meeting held on the 24th September 1875

5 There were nine meetings of the committee during the year under report, at which an average of six members attended

6. The following are the principal subjects which engaged the attention of the committee during the year

7 The committee resolved at a meeting consisting of six members, held on 8th December 1874, to levy during the year the maximum rates of cesses, so that the roads that had been undertaken during the late scarcity might be proceeded with and completed as far as possible All the members without dissent agreed to the maximum rates

8 The estimate of income and expenditure for the year under report had been prepared by the committee at a meeting held on the 15th August 1874 The receipts were estimated at Rs 43,550 The actual receipts were Rs 19,615 The diminution in the actual receipt, compared with the original estimate, was due to the estimate having been framed before the completion of the road cess assessment The actual expenditure was Rs 1,01,208-14-11, including Rs 43,496-9-6 for grain

9 No new lines of road were opened during the year under report Of the sum of Rs 93,320-6 9 expended under the head of original works, Rs 65,522-14-9 (including Rs 43,496-9-6 on account of Government grain) were paid for works done during the year 1873-74, but for which no payment could be made until after the expiry of the year, and Rs 27,797-8-0 were spent on the current year's work Of this sum Rs 11,308-3-0 were paid as compensation for lands taken up for roads executed during the late famine, and of the remaining Rs 16,489-5, the sum of Rs 2,555-13-9 were spent on the manufacture of bricks for constructing culverts on the road from Ondah to Taldangra, Mehara to Burjora, Dalpur to Mohishna, Mejia to Morulu, and Kustholia to Mejia, and Rs 13,933-7-3 on culverts constructed on the first seven miles of the road from Bankoora to Taldangra, on the nine and a half miles of the road from Belialer to Burjora, and on the last five miles of the road from Mejia to Morulu, ten large culverts have also been constructed on the road from Chatna to Supunnia, and on to Kustholia Nothing besides the above was done towards completing the roads which had been left unfinished after the relief operations were over

10 A sum of Rs 9,063 was estimated for under the head of repairs to the existing roads and bridges, but only a sum of Rs 2,913-11 could be spared in that direction Mere petty repairs were done to the roads from Bankoora to Indpur, Bankoora to Taldangra, Bankoora to Badulara, and the station roads The repairs which were done to the roads from Bankoora to Sonamookhy and Bishenpur to Namchura are too slight to deserve any mention here Thus it will appear that out of 21 roads in this district, four only were repaired during the year The remaining roads, and more specially the road from Morulu to Mejia, stand very much in need of repairs

11 New lines of roads were opened in different parts of the district with a view to give employment to labourers during the late famine As these were entirely relief works, the committee very reasonably hoped to receive grants from Government sufficient to meet their entire cost These expectations were not, however, fulfilled, and the committee are now in considerable pecuniary difficulties

12 With the small income at their disposal, they feel it very hard that they should be unable to complete even the most necessary works, their funds being swallowed up by having to pay for the land taken up for roads, which they certainly would not have constructed had their wishes only been consulted

13 There is now a large deficit outstanding against the committee's fund, viz Rs 12,869-11, by meeting which the committee must, unless aided by Government, leave very necessary works undone This will involve serious loss, as the longer roads are left unfinished the more expensive will be their future restoration

14 The Dalkesswar ferry worked fairly during the rains

15 The toll-gates on the several roads of the district were managed by their farmers in a satisfactory manner during the year under review

16 The accounts were examined by the Audit Committee specially appointed for the purpose The accounts were carefully scrutinized and checked by W H Cornish, Esq, J L Reuss, Esq, Baboo Kanti Chundra Chatterjee, assisted by the Vice-Chairman, Baboo Juggobundho Khan

Report of the Audit Committee is annexed —

BANKOORA,
The 17th December 1875

JUGGOBUNDHOO KHAN
Vice Chairman

No 432, dated Sooree, the 16th November 1875

From—R D HIME, ESQ, Chairman, District Road Committee, Beerbhoom,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division

I HAVE the honor to submit herewith the annual report of district works undertaken in the Beerbhoom district during the cess year 1874-75

2 During the year the fair weather roads, viz the unmetalled roads, have been repaired The collection of kunkur for the metalled roads was begun late in the year, but the full quantity has been collected on almost all the roads

3 The only original works of any importance which have been executed during the year are the following —

(1) Culverts on the Bolepore and Sacoolipore road
(2) Completing the earthwork of the Bolepore and Bangchuttra road
(3) Ditto ditto of the Elambazar and Doobrajpore road

On the first-mentioned of these roads there are only two large bridges left to be constructed, when communication at all times of the year will be open between the two villages, one of which is a railway station

4 The earthwork on the two other roads has been completed, and it is proposed during the current cess year to commence bridging both roads, as well as the Cynthea and Berhampore road, the earthwork of which has already been thrown up

Chairman

No 110, dated Midnapore, the 7th February 1876

From—A W COCHRAN, Esq, Vice-Chairman,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division

I HAVE the honor to submit the following report on the administration of the Midnapore District Road Fund during the cess year ending 30th September 1875

2 The Road Cess Act was introduced into this district in August by Government notification dated 7th July 1874, but the preliminary steps to effect valuations only commenced from October 1874 During the year under review no cess under Act X of 1871 on land or houses was therefore levied, but a sum of Rs 1,602 was realized from defaulters on account of fines under Section 10 of the Act

3 Though the Road Cess Department is busy in making valuation of estates and tenures since the beginning of the year, yet there is still remaining much to be done Up to the 30th September 1875 a valuation of about 13 lakhs only was completed, against an estimated value of 50 lakhs for the entire district, still this includes a large proportion of the necessary steps for valuing the remainder, and as a fact, at least half the work had been done by the close of the cess year To bring this valuation work to a conclusion at an earlier date, a new section of writers has recently been entertained, with the Board's sanction, in addition to the four sections already engaged

4 Up to the end of July 1875 the management of the District Road Fund was at the disposal of the road committee formed under Government Resolution No 1009 of the 23rd February 1872 On the 28th July a road cess committee consisting of the following members was constituted —

5 The first meeting of the road cess committee was held on the 12th August 1875 for the election of a vice-chairman, and the present Vice-Chairman A W Cochran, Esq, was elected The members present at the meeting were sufficiently numerous to form a quorum No other meetings were held up to the 30th September 1875 (one was held on 1st October)

6 The only change that has occurred in the members of the committee since is, that Mr Reily, District Superintendent of Police, was transferred from this district, being replaced by Major Hitchens

7 The annual accounts annexed to this report have been examined and passed by a sub committee formed for the purpose agreeably to Section 88 of the Act, consisting of three members, viz, A D Larymore, Esq, Baboo Gooroo Churun Dutt, and Baboo Nobeen Chunder Naug

8 It will be seen from the annual accounts that the aggregate total income of the fund during the year under report, including the Government grant and the unexpended balance of the preceding year, was Rs 58,221, and that a sum of Rs 4,501 was overdrawn from the treasury in excess of this income in order to meet the cost of establishment employed in the Cess Department

9 The cyclone relief fund committee of this district contributed a sum of Rs 11,031-1-9 for relief work to be carried out under the committee on some of the district roads of this district, and even more work to relieve distress seemed necessary than the committee could afford to supply This sum has been treated in the annual accounts as a receipt and credited to the fund under the head of "miscellaneous"

10 The roads and the work done on each are reported on as follows in the order they appear on the old list, the budget and annual accounts of last year having been drawn out according to that list

Road No I, from Gurbetta to Ramgurh —This is a fair-weather road, it has been bridged throughout its whole length, with the exception of a khâl near Ramgurh It connects Gurbetta with the interior, and is 26 miles in length

In the year under review a sum of Rs 1,000 in all was allotted for the ordinary repairs of the road, and for repairing the damages caused by the late cyclone (of the 15th October 1874) Of this sum Rs 784-3 6 has been disbursed up to the end of September 1875 on the under mentioned works —

1st —Surface repairs to the road up to the 19th mile were executed, and the embankment of the road in a few places raised The three large breaches caused by the cyclone on the 3rd and 5th mile of the road were filled up, and turfing work on the 1st, 3rd, 5th, and 7th mile, in places where urgently needed, was also executed

2nd —Certain places on the 3rd and 5th mile, which used to become very muddy during the rains, have been metalled with laterite, and the 7th mile of the road was thoroughly repaired

3rd —The waterway of a culvert on the 3rd mile of the road at Amlagorah not being sufficient, another culvert of one span of eight feet was constructed close by the said culvert

In the budget for the current year 1875-76 a sum of Rs 600 has been provided for ordinary repairs of the road and its existing bridges

Road No II, from Ladhassye to Binpore —This is one of the most important roads in the jungle mehals of this district, being the direct route from Midnapore to Chyebassa (for the first 18 miles) After the 18th mile, while this road continues on to Purihatti and Chyebassa, a branch goes off to Binpore, which by faulty classification has been called the main road, and the main road treated as the branch The committee have now corrected this classification To Binpore the entire road is 25¼ miles in length Traffic on this road is great, consisting of timber, oil-seeds, and all sorts of grain, coming chiefly from Chyebassa and the north-west jungle mehals

The road has been metalled up to the 4th, and bridged fully up to the 7th mile In order to construct additional culverts, a sum of Rs 4,075 was allotted in the budget under the head of "original work," but the funds at the disposal of the committee being low, it was found necessary to divert the greater part of this amount to other important roads for their maintenance, and for repairing the damages caused to them by the cyclone of October 1874 A sum of Rs 731-11-3 only has been spent on this road under this head, and with this sum a culvert of one span of four feet on the 9th mile, and that of two spans, each of eight feet, on the 10th mile, which had been constructed up to the spring of the arches in the year 1872 73, have been completed Materials, such as brick, shooting, &c, worth about Rs 280, were also manufactured and collected

This road joins the Bombay road six miles from Midnapore, and the road up to the point of junction is fully bridged and metalled hence for available distance from Midnapore six miles have to be added to the miles shown above The mile posts are as a fact actually numbered from Midnapore, and not from the point of junction

Out of Rs 1,100 provided in the budget for the year in question under the head of maintenance and repairs, a sum of Rs 784 3-6 only was spent on this road up to the 30th September 1875 By means of this expenditure the embankment of the 11th, 15th, 16th, 22nd, and 24th numbered miles (i e, miles from Midnapore) of the road has been thoroughly repaired, and the crest of the 7th and 8th miles dressed The approaches on both sides of the unbridged khâls of the 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 28th, 29th, and 30th (numbered) miles have also been sloped and made easy for the passage of carts and other vehicles, and 26 bridges of the line were whitewashed and repaired

The road has been placed under the Executive Engineer of the Midnapore Division, and the greater portion of the work mentioned above has been executed under his supervision An estimate amounting to Rs 11,414 has been framed by that officer for bridging the road fully up to Dohijuri, on the 24th numbered mile, and this estimate has been forwarded to the Commissioner for the approval of Government This work will be taken in hand at once as soon as the collection of road cess of this district begins

During the current cess year two selected miles of the road, which used to become very muddy during the rainy season, and for which a certain quantity of metal has already been collected, will be metalled, and the road will be widened and raised in places where urgently needed and a few small drain bridges will be constructed The existing pucca bridges of the line will also be repaired, and the unmetalled portion of the road will be top-dressed

A sum of Rs 3,500 has been provided in the budget for the above-mentioned works

Road No III, from Dohyuri to Purihatti, 7½ miles in length—This is a branch or rather, as above stated, the true continuation of the above-mentioned road, going direct to Chyebassa It is also under the Executive Engineer of the Midnapore Division

During the year under report surface repairs of the 28th, 29th, and 30th miles, measuring from Midnapore, have been executed, jungle of the 29th mile, on both sides of the road, about 30 feet in breadth on each side, has been cleared off, and three culverts of the line have been completely plastered The tops or crests of eight bridges were covered with earth, and materials worth about Rs 254 were collected and manufactured

The total expense incurred on the above-mentioned work was Rs 369 3 9 Of this sum the cost of materials has been shown in the annual accounts under the head of "original work"

In the "revised list of roads and bridges" submitted with this office No 505 of 28th September 1875, this road has not been shown as a separate one, but a continuation of road No II, and the budget estimate for the current cess year having been drawn out in the order of the revised list, the estimated cost of repairing this road has not been shown in a separate item, but included in the amount provided for the main line of road, the road from Dohijuri to Binpore being treated as the branch

Road No IV, from Chundercona to Amlagorah, 16 miles long—This road is a very important one on account of the traffic to Ghattal and Ramjibunpore from the north-west of the district and south-east portion of Manbhoom and Bankoora The traffic consists chiefly of timber, charcoal, molasses, oil-seeds, sâl leaves, and all other sorts of jungle produce, which are conveyed to Ghattal, the great centre of commerce in those parts of the country, and in return salt, tobacco, English cloth, thread, &c, are carried back It is under the supervision of Mr Stevenson, a Manager of Messrs Watson & Co, as it connects his sudder factory at Amlagorah with the out-factory at Chuttergunge, and the repair works carried out by that gentleman are as follows —

Petty repairs executed on the 1st and 2nd mile of the road, in filling up holes and gaps and dressing the surface The road and side slopes of the 3rd, 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th miles having been greatly injured by the cyclone, earth to the average depth of about one foot has been thrown over the roadway, and its surface dressed From 9th to 12th mile the road has also been raised to an average height of one foot, and side drains on both sides of this portion of the road, in places where needed, have been excavated

The embankment of the road from 4th to the 5th mile-posts was formerly very high, and used as an embankment for irrigation purposes By the late cyclone this post was heavily breached and injured, but as the embankment is now no longer required for irrigation purposes, it has been lowered and cut down to the level of the other portion of the road Turfing work on the 14th mile, and in places where new earth has been thrown, was also done Portions of the 3rd, 7th, and 16th miles, which used to become very heavy during the rainy season, have been metalled with laterite

Three new small causeways of roughly dressed stone have been constructed in lieu of three small broken culverts Flooring of two pucca bridges between the 4th and 5th mile-post has been renewed

The allotment for the road for the year in question was Rs 1,200 Of this sum Rs 1,078-4-4 was spent on the above mentioned works and the amount adjusted up to the 30th September 1875 is Rs 691-12-3

During the current cess year 1875-76 the road with its bridges will be maintained, and a small drain culvert will be constructed at an estimated cost of Rs 400

Road No V, from Chundercona to Goaltore, 23 miles long—Like road No IV, this is also an important road for traffic to and from Ghattal, for Raipore, Ramgurh, Chyebassa, and other places, and is a kind of chord line of roads Nos I and IV

The road is a kutcha one throughout its whole length The first four miles of the road were put under the Cyclone Relief Officer at Chundercona for the purpose of carrying out relief works, and a sum of about Rs 1,600 was laid out by that officer from the cyclone relief fund in executing the repairs of this portion of the road for the express purpose of affording work to the distressed Tantees of Chundercona

With the above expenditure the two large breaches caused by the cyclone, on the 1st and 3rd mile of the road, near the Moorakhali and Donye bridges, were completely filled up, and the whole portion, about four miles in length, raised one foot on the average, and the side slopes turfed The railings of the two wooden bridges named above having been blown away by the cyclone were renewed, and silt, which was blocking up the Moorakhali bridge, was removed

Besides the works detailed above, the under-mentioned works were executed on the other portion of the road from the District Road Fund, under the supervision of the district road committee, at a cost of Rs 822-8 Of this sum, Rs 547-8 has been adjusted up to the end of September 1875, and shown in the annual accounts under the head of "repairs"

Petty repairs to the remaining portion of the line, from the 5th to the 23rd mile, in filling in holes and gaps, were executed Breaches of the 7th, 9th, 10th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, and 16th mile, caused by the cyclone, were completely closed, the road about three miles in length, on the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th miles, raised on an average of 1½ feet, and the crest of bridges from the 5th to the 23rd mile were covered with earth

The road from the 5th to the 8th mile-post is now in a very bad state of repair, the roadway of this portion of the road having fallen below the level of the adjoining country This portion of the road will be raised during the current year, and petty repairs are to be executed in places where needed, a few bridges will also be repaired The sum provided in the budget for these works is Rs 1,200

Road No VI, Burdwan road—This is an important line of road running between Midnapore and Burdwan, its importance will be increased when the head-quarters of a sub-division are fixed at Ghattal, as it will then form the main line of communication between Midnapore and the sub division of Ghattal Commencing from the temple of Juggurnath, in the town of Midnapore, the length up to the village of Hazeepore (which is the present furthest limit of the district on the north) is 35 miles, 2 furlongs, of which 1 mile 2 furlongs is within the municipal limits

During the time under report the following work has been executed on the road —

1st—The road was heavily breached on the 14th, 16th, 17th, and 23rd mile by the late cyclone Save the breaches of the 23rd mile, all other breaches were filled in, and the road made passable for carts and other kind of traffic up to the 22nd mile The breaches of the 23rd mile were only partly filled up, as the committee at a meeting held on the 1st March 1875 determined to abandon about 7½ miles of the road from the 22nd mile to the junction with the Ghattal and Chundercona road, in consequence of a new line of road from the 22nd mile being available direct to Chundercona (it had been opened in the year 1873-74 and was a relief road) The side slopes of the places where new earth has been thrown were also turfed

2nd—A culvert of one span of four feet was wholly destroyed by the cyclone this culvert was re-constructed, and approaches on both sides of it were made and metalled Two large pucca bridges and four wooden ones, which were also injured by the cyclone, were thoroughly repaired Two spans of an old Marhatta bridge of four spans at Elahrgunge, on the 4th mile of the road, were broken down by the flood of June last A temporary wooden bridge has been constructed at the place for the purpose of keeping up the communication of the road, and the pucca bridge will be replaced hereafter

3rd—Plants and trees on both sides of the road are being grown, and the crest of four bridges with their approaches on both sides metalled

This road is also under the Executive Engineer of the Midnapore Division, and almost all the work detailed above was done under his supervision

The accounts of all the contractors, &c, of the road were not settled by the end of September 1875 A sum of Rs 1,778-10-4 only was adjusted, and that sum has been shown in the annual accounts against this road under the head of repair Rs 111-5-3 shown under the head of original work is on account of last year's work

The sum of Rs 2,150 provided in the budget for the current year will be spent in repair work and re-constructing a culvert of the line

Road No VII, Noada road—This road meets the provincial road to Calcutta, to which it unites the town of Noada It is 3½ miles long, of which about one mile was once metalled Noada is famed for its sugar manufacture, though its trade has much fallen off owing to the prevalence of epidemic fever there for two years

The river Cossye passes the end of the road, where there is a ferry under the management of the local zemindar

Chiefly to afford employment to the labouring classes of the eastern part of the district, the cyclone relief fund committee laid out a sum of Rs 1,900 from the cyclone relief fund in carrying out the repairs of the road, and the work was done under the supervision of the said committee

With the expenditure mentioned above, a portion of the 1st and 4th, and the whole of the 2nd and 3rd mile of the road, have been raised on an average one foot in height, and the entire portion has been dressed The slopes on both sides of the 2nd and 3rd mile, and upward of 2,000 feet of the 1st mile, having been greatly damaged by the cyclone, have been repaired The soil of the 2nd and 3rd mile, and of the unmetalled portion of the 1st mile, not being good for road surface, sand has been spread over the crest to keep the road dry during th rainy season Approaches on both sides of the Cossye river, at the terminus of the road, have been made, and the line has now been connected with the road between Noada and Ghattal, on the opposite bank of the river The jungle and the babool-trees blown down by the late cyclone have been removed, and the whole line cleared for traffic

One pucca bridge of one span of 10 feet, on the 1st mile of the road, has been thoroughly repaired Four wing walls and a part of its arch have been re-constructed, and the two parapets (injured by the cyclone) were repaired Three more wooden bridges of the line have also been repaired One plank and 12 beams have been supplied in place of the old and unserviceable ones Eight dilapidated masonry parapet posts of the said three wooden bridges have also been repaired, and the crests of those bridges have been newly metalled

Besides the expenditure of Rs 1,900 incurred from the cyclone relief fund, a sum of Rs 108-10-3 has been paid to the contractor of the road on account of last year's work This amount only has been shown in the annual accounts against this road under the head of "repairs"

For the current cess year 1875 76, Rs 100 has been provided in the budget for the repairs and maintenance of the road and its existing bridges

Road No VIII, from Belda to Contai —Of the local roads in the Contai sub-division this is the most important, it meets the provincial road to Cuttack at the village of Belda, and is the only line of communication between Midnapore and Contai Its length from Belda to Contai is 35 miles 2 furlongs

It is a fair-weather road, almost entirely bridged throughout its whole length Only one culvert in mile 7 is wanted, for which provision has been made in the budget for the current year Of the two old culverts which were dismantled in the year 1873-74, one has very nearly been completed, and a temporary wooden bridge constructed over the other broken culvert for keeping up communication of the road The inspection bungalow at Egra, on the 17th mile of the road, which was wholly destroyed by the cyclone, has also been partly re-constructed during the year The remaining work of the bungalow, and of the culverts of the line, will be finished during the current cess year

The repair work executed on the road during the year consists chiefly of surface repairs, widening and raising the road in places, and petty repairs to some of the bridges of the road The accounts of the Deputy Magistrate, &c, in charge of the road were not settled by the 30th September 1875 A sum of Rs 278-1-9 only was adjusted during the year under the head of repairs, and Rs 103-7-0 under that of original work

The estimate in the budget for the year 1875 76 is for completing the three culverts of the road mentioned above, and for ordinary repairs to the road and its existing bridges

Road No IX, section I, from Contai to Tumlook, Kalinuggur section, 18 miles in length — Section No 1 is that portion of the road between Contai and Tumlook which lies within the Contai sub-division, and is under the charge of the Sub-divisional Officer at Contai

From mile 1 to 10 the road has been thoroughly repaired, and is in fair and passable order It needs raising in a few places between 12th and 15th miles, which will be done in the present year Two masonry culverts, one in mile 4 and the other in mile 8, were re-constructed last year, but the cost of these constructions will be paid in 1875-76 Two more culverts are wanting in mile 3 and 7, for which provision has also been made in the present year's budget

Of the sum spent in repair work, only Rs 233-2 0 was adjusted up to the end of September 1875 The greater portion of this amount was spent in doing surface repair of the road and widening the road in places up to the 10th mile

Road No IX, section II, from Contai to Tumlook, Nurghaut section —This is a portion of the above-mentioned line, which is in the sub-division of Tumlook, and is 20 miles and 3 furlongs in length The repair work carried out during the year in question consists of earthwork, dressing, and turfing, which were executed in filling up breaches caused by the cyclone, widening and raising the road, and raising the sides of the unmetalled portion A wooden bridge at Bajcool has also been re-constructed, and metalling of the crest of two bridges was renewed

During the current cess year two pucca culverts will be constructed, and ordinary repairs will be given to the road and its bridges

Road No X, from Contai to Joonpoot —This road has been transferred to the Public Works Department, vide Government letter No 457, dated 10th September 1873 The number has now been allotted to a new road

Road No XI, from Contai to Ramnuggur, 15 miles in length —This is a kutcha road, bridged throughout its whole length The damages caused by the cyclone to the road, and to some of its bridges, were repaired, and the road made passable during the year a part (about 8,900 feet in length) has also been raised Money spent during the year from the District Road Fund is Rs 193-9-9

The amount provided in the present year's budget will be spent in ordinary repairs of the road and of the bridges which were not repaired last year

Road No, XII, Gope roads —These roads are in, and in the vicinity of, the Midnapore station, though outside municipal limits They are 12 in number, and about 12 miles in length All of them are metalled roads and bridged throughout

The obstructions caused by the late cyclone by blowing down trees on the roads were removed, and the roads cleared for traffic The breaches caused in some of the roads were also filled in, and the trees on both sides of the roads were maintained during the year The money spent on these works only was disbursed up to the 30th September 1875

Besides the above-mentioned work, metalling of four of the roads out of 12 was thoroughly repaired, or rather renewed, and some 12 bridges repaired, but the money spent has been adjusted in the year 1875-76

The sum of Rs 600 provided in the budget for the current year will be spent in repairing the metalling of the roads which were not touched last year, and in doing earthwork and turfing when necessary Some of the bridges of the roads will also be repaired

Road No XIII, from Kallaberiah to Satpatti, 9½ miles long —For the present this is not an important road, but when the new lines of roads from Satpatti to Kantapaharee and Goaltore have been wholly constructed and bridged, it will then form part of a principal or direct line of communication between Midnapore and the jungle mehals of the northern part of the district

The road itself has not entirely been bridged as yet In the previous year the first mile of it was metalled, but the metalling has now been worn out for want of repairs During the year under report no work was done on this road, only the obstructions caused by the cyclone in blowing down trees, &c, were removed The greater portion of the sum of Rs 133-10 6 shown in the annual accounts against this road has been paid on account of work done in the year 1873 74

In the present year a sum of Rs 150 only has been estimated for ordinary repairs of the road

Road No XIV, from Lodhasah to Mohapal, 9½ miles in length —This is also an important road in the jungle mehals Mohapal is the centre of trade for Gopibullubpore a large producing thana in the south-west of the district, and this road connects this place with Midnapore

The road has not yet been thoroughly bridged and about half of its length requires to be raised and widened For want of funds very little work has been done on this road during the year in question Only a certain quantity of earthwork was executed The bills of the contractor have been made over to the Executive Engineer of the Midnapore district for measurement and report

The sum of Rs 201-6 6 shown against this road under the head of original works is on account of work done in 1873-74, but paid in 1874-75

In the present cess year the road will be widened and raised as far as funds will allow, and some wooden bridges will be repaired

Road No XV, from Khurgopore to Kessaree —This is also one of the important roads in the jungle mehals of this district It branches off from the Cuttack trunk road at Khurgopore, 4½ miles from Midnapore, and terminates at Kessaree, a place known for its manufacture of tusser and tusser cloth Its length from Khurgopore to Kessaree is 16½ miles

The road has not yet been fully bridged throughout its whole length, and is not passable for carts and other vehicles at all seasons of the year (about seven miles of it are still a mere track)

During the year in question the breaches caused by the cyclone on the 10th, 12th, 15th, 17th, and 18th mile of the road, as measured from Midnapore, were closed, and temporary cartways made round the broken bridges over the Netra and Hattigaria khâls Slopes on both the banks of the Kelraghai river, which intersects the road on the 15th mile, were cut and made easy for the passage of carts The embankment of the road in places about three miles in length, on the 7th, 10th, 17th, 18th, 19th, and 20th mile, was raised and widened Jungle to the extent of nearly 1½ miles in length and about 30 feet broad on each side of the road was cut and cleared off

A culvert of one span of four feet on the 12th mile, which was destroyed by the cyclone, was re constructed, and its span enlarged from four to six feet Two causeways of rough stone masonry work were also constructed Three large bridges of the line injured by the cyclone have also been thoroughly repaired and partly re-constructed

Turfing work in places where new earth has been thrown was also done

The accounts of the contractors, &c, of this road were not finally settled during the year Of the sum of Rs 2,719-3-6 shown in the annual accounts, about Rs 1,100 was paid to a contractor on account of work done in the year 1873-74, and the rest paid for this year's work

The sum of Rs 2,500 provided in the budget for the current year will be spent chiefly in widening and raising the road

Road No XVI, from Midnapore to Kamararah —This is a portion of the old Bombay line, 47 miles long, of which 33 miles lie in this district, and are under the Committee

The road was metalled in previous years up to the river Cossye, which intersects the road on the 6th mile 2 furlongs In 1873-74 a distance of about four miles, from the 13th mile-post towards Midnapore, was metalled, and a further length of two miles from the other side of the river has been metalled in 1874-75 The intervening portion between the river and 13th mile-post, which remains unmetalled, will be metalled during the current year with the money which remains unexpended in the hands of Mr Selby, an assistant to the Manager of Messrs Watson & Co at Godapeasal

The road is bridged up to the 13th mile In the year under review the two large wooden bridges referred to in the annual report for the year 1873-74 were completed, and a causeway has been built Petty repairs to the metalling of the first six miles two furlongs of the road were executed, and the bridges and culverts of the said portion of the road were repaired.

In the current year the road will be kept up to the 22nd mile, and two culverts will be constructed

The accounts of the overseer employed on this road were not settled up to the 30th September 1875 hence the total expenditure incurred on the above-mentioned work was not shown in the annual accounts

Road No XVII, from Contai to Kookrahatti —This is the postal route from Calcutta to Contai

The road up to Khedgree has been made passable during the year The damages caused by the cyclone were repaired, and a portion, about 700 feet in length, raised Some bridges of the line were also repaired, and a culvert, totally destroyed by the cyclone, re-constructed The total expense incurred by the District Road Fund on the above-mentioned work is Rs 415-11-3, but the amount adjusted up to the 30th September 1875 was Rs 95-9 only

During the present year only petty repairs to the road will be executed

Road No XVIII, from Balighai to Jelassore —This is a very important road in the Contai sub-division, being much used by the rice traders from Balasore to Balighai as a route to Calcutta Traffic is considerable on the road Goods brought from Calcutta by boats are unloaded at Balighai, and thence carried to those districts over this road by means of carts and pack-bullocks

The road is a kutcha one, having pucca bridges throughout its whole length During the year under review, the injuries caused to the road and its bridges by the cyclone were repaired The inspection bungalow at Mohunpore, on the 11th mile of the road, with its out-offices was thoroughly repaired The repair works were not all finished at the close of the year, but were carried on and completed after its close The expenses incurred to the end of September only have been shown in the annual return

The road needs only ordinary repairs, for which provision has been made in the budget for 1875-76

Road No XIX, from Panchcoorah to Tumlook, 16 miles long —This is a metalled road, bridged throughout The metalling of the whole line of road has almost wholly been worn out, but as the traffic on this road has been greatly reduced since the opening of the canal from Ooloobeniah to Midnapore, the road need not now be re-metalled Last year some earthwork was executed in raising the earthen sides, repairing the side slopes, and filling up gaps and holes caused by the cyclone All the bridges of the line were also thoroughly repaired The expense incurred on the road during the year was Rs 1,000-14-5, of this amount Rs 75 was paid on account of last year's work, Rs 217 on account of compensation of land taken for the diversion of Tumlook road approach, and the balance on present year's work

During the current year the road and its bridges will be maintained

Road No XX, from Ghattal to Chunderconna, 16 miles in length —This is also one of the most useful and important roads of the district The traffic on it is great Ghattal, which is within tidal limits, is the commercial centre of the north-eastern parts of the district, and the road connects Ghattal with Chundercona and Kheerpoy, which are also principal seats of trade in that part of the country

The road is under the Executive Engineer of the Midnapore Division since the year 1872-73 During the year under report a sum of Rs 15,051-15-3 has been spent by that officer both on original and repair works, and his report on the road is as follows —

"The work done by this Department in the Ghattal and Chundercona road is the new metalling of 9th, 10th, 11th, and portion of 12th mile The metalling of the entire length of road (viz, 14 miles) and construction of culverts and a causeway at Munsatoli have since been completed, with the exception of a small portion of work in the deviation of 3rd mile of the road remaining to be done, and which will very shortly be completed As soon as this is done, the road will then be entirely completed and made over to the District Road Office"

The rest of the work referred to above has since been completed, and the Executive Engineer, after inspecting the road, will submit completion report to this office

The sum of Rs 2,000 estimated in the budget for the current year will be necessary to maintain the road and its bridges during the year

Road No XXI, from Noada to Ghattal, up to Nimtolla, 19 miles in length —For want of funds no work was executed on the road during the year in question Only a sum of Rs 14 3-6 was spent in removing trees blown down by the cyclone The sum of Rs 225 entered in the budget for the year 1875 76 will be spent on ordinary repairs of the portion of the road constructed in the year 1873 74

Road No XXII, Kheerpoy to Buddengunge No XVIII, Ramjibunpore to Chuttergunge No XXXII, Chundercona to Kowapore —During the year under report nothing was spent on these roads from the District Road Fund To afford relief to the destitute, the cyclone relief committee laid out a sum of Rs 1,572-3 from this fund in executing the repairs of these roads The work was done under the supervision of the Cyclone Relief Officer at Chundercona, and it consisted chiefly of earthwork and dressing

Road No XXIV, Keshpore to Narajole —This line of road was laid out in the year 1873 74 to provide work for the poor, and out of eight miles of the road, six miles were constructed in that year During the year under review a further length of about 1½ miles has been constructed, and the cost of this work, viz Rs 600, was met from the cyclone relief fund

The portion constructed in the year 1873-74 has also been thoroughly repaired and turfed, but the amount spent on this work has been adjusted in the present year

	Rs	As	P
No XXV, Binpore to Seldah	71	10	9
No XXVI, Dohijuri to Lallgurh	95	12	3
No XXVII, Binpore to Ramgurh	69	14	3
No XXVIII, Lallgurh to ditto	68	1	3

These roads were made in the year 1873-74 in the north-western part of the district for affording relief to the labouring classes, and partly constructed during the year, as shown in the statement given in the annual report for the year In the year 1874-75 only turfing work in places where urgently wanted has been executed on the portions already constructed

Road No XXIX, Sugri to Jhargram —This is also one of the famine roads opened in the year 1873-74 in the western parts of the district It was constructed during the said year up to 6½ miles from Jhargram (out of eight miles). This year the road has nearly been finished, and some temporary wooden bridges have been constructed at a cost of Rs 472-11.

In the present cess year the road and its wooden bridges will be repaired and maintained, and the small portion remaining will also be finished

No XXX, from Gurbetta to Buddengunge and Koyapat —This road is about 12 miles in length, of which only three miles were constructed in the year 1873-74 During the last year nothing has been done on this road for want of funds

No XXXI, from Satpatti to Kantapakaree, 13 miles long —This is another new line of road opened during the year 1873-74, on the north-western part of the district, in order to provide labour for the poor Save 2½ miles, the whole line of road was constructed during that year In the year 1874-75 a sum of Rs 603 has been paid on account of last year's work, and Rs 100 spent in making approaches on both sides of the unbridged khâls, and in doing petty repairs to the road

During the present year the road will be repaired and kept up

No XXXIII, from Satpatti to Goaltore, 12 miles in length —This is also a new line of road commenced in 1873-74, and a sum of Rs 1,500 was advanced to Mr Anderson, Manager of Messrs Watson & Co, at Godapeasal, for its construction Of this sum only Rs 87 was spent during that year in constructing about one mile of the road The balance, Rs 1,413, and a further sum of Rs 175-13-10, were spent during the year under report, and almost the whole of the line has been constructed The line has not yet been bridged, only one wooden bridge of three openings, each of 10 feet, was constructed (at the expense of Messrs Watson & Co)

Road from Egra to Puttaspore, 8½ miles in length —This road has been newly constructed during the year in question from the cyclone relief fund, at a cost of Rs 6,257-14-9, and taken on the road list of this Department It requires raising in places, which will be done this year as far as funds will allow Bridges, nine in number, are required for this road, of which five have been completed and one commenced Two new hâts have been established along the line of the new road one at Khar, and the other at Puttaspore

Ferries —Under the head of ferries a sum of Rs 1,942-6-9 was spent during the year With this expenditure three new horse boats and four new pansees were constructed, and one old boat and three pansees were repaired

A W COCHRAN, C S., Vice-Chairman

No A, dated Hooghly, the 8th August 1876

From—W J HERSCHEL, ESQ, Chairman, District Road Committee, Hooghly,

To—The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division

I HAVE the honor to submit the following report upon the administration of the Hooghly and Howrah District Road Fund for the year ending 30th September 1875 I joined office after the close of the year

2 The following is a list of the official and non-official members of the District Road Fund Committee during the year under report —

Mr F H Pellew, Chairman
„ W F Merces, Vice-Chairman

Mr T J C Grant	Members	Baboo Nolit Mohun Singh	Members
„ W D Pratt		„ Upendra Narain Nundy
„ T D Beighton		„ Abhai Churun Nundy
Baboo Joy Kishen Mookerjee		„ Poorna Chundra Roy
„ Chundrakant Mookerjee		„ Sitya Doyal Banerjee
„ Juggeshur Singh

3 The following changes in the members took place during the year —

Mr F H Pellew left India on furlough in February last, and Mr A Weekes, Officiating Magistrate and Collector, filled the office of Chairman for the remainder of the year

No Vice-Chairman was elected after Mr Merces leaving the district in April 1875 on deputation The Chairman, Mr Weekes, undertook the duties of Vice-Chairman in addition

Mr J Peterson was a member for Howrah while acting for Mr T J C Grant

4 Fourteen meetings of the Commissioners were held during the year, the meetings were all held at Hooghly This has been the custom hitherto, but it tells unfavourably on the southern part of the district Mr Pellew intended to have Sub-divisional Committees, and the experience of the current year shows that this must be done

5 No road cess was collected during the year, it having been suspended under Government orders No 298, dated 5th February 1874, consequently all that the Road Cess Committee could do in the year towards the maintenance and repairs of the district roads was to carry on works which it was absolutely necessary to do by means of a loan received from Government of Rs 25,000 under the Public Works Loan Act

6 All works during the year were carried out by the Public Works establishment consisting of the Executive Engineer* in charge of the Hooghly and Howrah Public Works Provincial Division and his subordinates This arrangement ceased with the close of the year During the current year the Committee have their own District Engineer, the same officer as above

* Mr W H Wells

7 Roads under the District Road Committee —The list of roads was declared under the law, but it will probably have to be modified on the next occasion, as it includes a few doubtful lines, and several not as yet deliberately determined on The district roads, as far as they go at present, form an excellent skeleton of communications radiating from the East Indian Railway But the southern part of the Howrah division, representing nearly one-third of the area of the Hooghly-cum-Howrah road district, has hardly a morsel of road to boast of Nothing could be done during the year under review to remedy this, and as no cess was collected the injustice was not felt But in the current year it has become matter of the first importance to devise some means consistent with the impracticable nature of the country for spending the collections to the satisfaction of the contributors A large extension of the village road system has been decided on, and the meetings have been held occasionally at Howrah, but more permanent measures than this are found to be indispensable in order to secure a fair return to the people in the south The creation of a Joint Committee at Howrah with full power over its own budget is evidently the right course, the Howrah members at present take little or no interest in the management of the funds and get little accordingly

GENERAL ACCOUNT OF WORK DONE

9. Surface repairs—No early surface repairs were done to the roads in this district owing to want of funds, but a few bad miles were dressed to some extent to render them more passable to traffic later in the season

10 Class I—Other repairs—Roads under the head of Class I were repaired as regards the metalling to some extent, but on three important roads of this class, namely Bydabatti to Bhola, Howrah to Juggutbullubpore, and Old Benares Roads, the estimates were sanctioned too late in the year to allow all the metal required to be collected, and consequently these roads were not repaired up to their requirements, or as far as funds permitted, specially the Bydaibatti and Bhola road

The remainder of the roads under this class were repaired as far as the funds and estimates of the year provided, and several miles of new coating were given to them, and the roads are generally in fair order, with the exception of the Pandua and Culna road, which still requires several miles of new coating to put the old metal in order, and this will be done in the next year

The repairs done to Class I of the roads repaired last year were nearly all metalling repairs, a few repairs were done to culverts where very necessary, but to a small extent only, and little or no repairs were done to the slopes of the roads

11 Class II—The repairs done to Class II of roads repaired in the last year were of a very small extent, and consisted chiefly of petty urgent repairs to culverts and slopes of the roads to keep them passable to traffic

12 Classes III and IV—The repairs to Classes III and IV of the above roads were also of very small extent indeed

13 Original Works—Under this head one mile of the Utturpara and Kalipore road was newly metalled with jhama metalling over brick soling The work was not wholly completed within the year owing to the late time when the estimate was sanctioned and the contractor's delay in the work, and it has only been finally completed before the end of December

14 The other original works were of minor extent, and consisted of making new culverts on the Dhoniakhali and Bhastara road, and a small timber bridge and culvert on the Dirdhungo and Durgarampore road These were old roads on the legal list, and were partially renewed in the famine year, and these culverts were necessary to render them passable to traffic

15 Some small original works were commenced as relief works but were speedily stopped The work consisted of earthwork only over old tracks, two of which are borne on the legal list, and which it was intended to form into roads

	Amount expended Rs
(1) Dhoniakhali to Bunderhatte	194
(2) Singoor to Nunda	76
(3) Singoor to Azibnugger	105
(4) Hurripal to Koikala	55
(5) Hurripal to Siddygatchee ..	97

16 Works remaining unfinished at close of the year—Nearly all works sanctioned for the year remained unfinished at the close of the year, owing to the late date at which the loan was received and works sanctioned, but they were all nearly completed according to the estimates before December, with the exception of the repairs of the Bydaibatti feeder road, on which a considerable saving was effected owing to failure in collection of jhama and stone metalling as estimated There was also a saving on some other repair estimates for a similar reason, but of small extent The original works sanctioned were all carried out according to the estimates before the end of December 1875

17 Stone metalling—Enquiry was made into the success of the stone metalling experiment begun in the last few years, and Mr Wells reports —"The stone laid down two years before appears to warrant the continuance of this mode of metalling on roads with heavy traffic in preference to brick metalling, and the substitution of stone for brick should be yearly continued, as funds permit on such road whenever stone can be laid down within four times the cost of brick, as such metalling will be more economical in the end"

18 General condition of roads—The culverts and small bridges on all roads are generally of very bad masonry, done under the old ferry fund system, and petty repairs to them are not therefore generally satisfactory, as must be the case in patching old bad masonry It is a common thing to hear of the arch of an old culvert tumbling in, and hitherto it has been only repaired, as funds are too small to allow of renewal of the entire culvert, which should be done in future as far as possible in cases where the old masonry is very bad

The masonry culverts and bridges on a portion of the Old Benares Road are generally very bad indeed, and it will cost a good deal to put them in order, and little or nothing has been done hitherto owing to the funds at disposal being more urgently required elsewhere

The section of roads generally is also bad, and the alignments of roads very bad, and there are no boundaries or records showing the land, if any, on either sides belonging to the roads

The roads, even those on the legal list recognized as roads, are too numerous to allow of anything being done at present to make them look ship-shape as to section and alignment, but it is proposed, as the new system advances and funds increase, to take up the roads gradually in the order of importance, and re-align and section them properly, put all the culverts and bridges in thorough repair, and, in this re-sectioning the roads, long continuous side drains might be cut at reasonable distances from the berm of the road, and these would for the future not be allowed to be encroached on by the cultivators, who have undoubtedly encroached in the case of every road on the pits originally made to form the roads, if any land was taken up for the roads at all

The difficulty of this question of keeping boundaries in future arises from the want of knowledge as to how the roads were originally made, and whether or not they were only tracks formed into roads without any surplus land being taken up or not, but I think it can be assumed that the right to keep as much land as is necessary to maintain the roads in proper order was understood when they were made, and continuous side drains are the only way of maintaining that understanding in future in want of any existing records of each road

No doubt the alignment and sectioning of the roads may be greatly improved as time goes on, but I do not think the present net-work of communications north of Howrah is anything to be ashamed of

The district will compare in this respect with some European countries, and is better supplied than others of them The mofussil roads of Egypt are not to be named with those of Hooghly

19 Tolls —These show the most encouraging increase, especially after laying down stone metalling, the good surface of which tells on the wheeled traffic very rapidly compared to brick Hackney carriages on springs drawn by ponies run now over the greater part of the district, while ten years ago such a thing was hardly to be seen out of the municipal limits

20 Canals —The Gyghati Canal is the only one under the Commissioner It has not been touched this year, and is suffering in consequence by silt, its maintenance is altogether problematical, and the Engineer has this year taken the question up accurately with no very encouraging results

21 Future works —The following original works were decided on during the year, and have made good progress, or been completed since

(a) A bridge over the Koontee river to carry the Mugrah and Meriah road, and which is much wanted, as the road is useless without a bridge, is proposed to be undertaken during the next year, and allowed for in the budget

(b) Continuing the stone metalling in place of brick metal on the Bydaibatti to Bhola road one further mile, and which has also been allowed for in the budget for 1875-76, which will make in all 8½ miles stone metalled out of about 10½ miles of road

(c) Continuing the metalling of the Utturpara and Kalipore road for another 2 miles, also allowed in the budget for 1875-76, which will make in all 3 miles metalled out of 4½ miles of road

(d) Continuing the metalling of the Howrah and Juggutbullubpore road for another 3 miles to make in all 7 miles metalled out of 14 miles of road, also included in the budget for 1875-76

(e) Construction of five inspection bungalows in the district, also included in the budget

(f) Planting of trees on district roads, of which two avenues of 6 miles have lately been made as experiments on the Hooghly and Dhoniakhali and Hooghly Dwarbasiny roads, and it is considered that further continuance in such work to any extent should not be made until it is seen how the present experiment answers

(g) The cleaning of the Baksi and Gyghati khal previously alluded to under the head of "Tolls" was not considered or proposed during the past year, but the question is to be opened during the next year

22 Future establishment —The Committee have appointed Mr Wells their District Engineer, with a suitable establishment of overseers, sub-overseers, and office The Engineer's services will cost the Committee Rs 1,000 a month, inclusive of the payment to Government for the loan of this Public Works Officer, and of travelling allowances The Committee could not possibly afford to continue such high pay long, and the contract is for a short period only, sufficient, however, to enable the Engineer to place the work of the Committee on a sound footing for the future Mr Wells is doing this in a steady efficient way, which we hope will fully repay us in the long run In the budget for the coming (current) year the whole cost of establishment (collection charges, Committee's establishment charges, and Engineer's establishment charges) is estimated to be 17 per cent on the total outlay of about 1½ lakhs, which cannot be considered high

No 101, dated Burdwan, the 29th April 1876

From—H A COCKERELL, ESQ, Commissioner of Burdwan,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department

WITH reference to your No 1857 of the 21st April, I have the honor to forward in original the local improvement reports of the districts marginally noted for the cess year 1874-75 The report from Hooghly, which has not yet been received, will be submitted separately

Burdwan, Bankoora, Beerbhoom, and Midnapore

2 The Road Cess Act was in force in all the districts of this division, but the cess was collected only in Bankoora and Beerbhoom In the district of Burdwan, owing to fever and scarcity, the cess was not collected, and in Midnapore the valuations are not yet complete

3 The particulars called for in paragraph 10 of the Government Resolution No 1286, dated 13th March 1876, regarding District Road Committees, are embodied in the statements which have since been received from the district officers and are attached to the district reports The Chairman of the Burdwan Road Committee reports that the non-official members took very little interest in the discharge of their functions

4 The total income of the several districts of this division during the year under report was Rs 2,91 490 14-½, of which Rs 1,15,271 were granted by Government from the provincial reserve fund The expenditure, as shown in the margin, amounts to Rs 5,35,923-0-11½ In almost all the districts it exceeded the receipts The excess expenditure from the District Road Fund was on account of relief works, and has been subsequently adjusted by additional grants made by Government in its Resolution No 1242, dated 9th March 1876

5 The details of the income and expenditure of each district having been shown in he annual accounts already submitted to Government, I need not re-produce them here

6 The progress of work shown in the reports appears on the whole satisfactory, but I regret to observe that little or no expenditure was made in the districts of Bankoora and Beerbhoom during the year towards the construction of village roads

No 194T, dated Camp Midnapore, the 5th September 1876

From—HORACE A COCKERELL, ESQ, Commissioner of the Burdwan Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department

IN continuation of this office No 101 of the 29th April 1876, and with reference to your No 2223 of the 18th May, I have the honor to submit the Annual Administration Report of the District Road Fund of Hooghly-cum Howrah for the cess year ending 30th September 1875

2 There were altogether fourteen meetings of the Road Cess Committee during the year under review, all of which were held at Hooghly During the current year, however, the meetings of the Committee have occasionally been held at Howrah From the remarks made by the Magistrate it appears that the interests of the people of the southern portion of the district are not adequately represented, and I approve of the proposal to have a Joint Committee at Howrah with full power over its own budget

3 It will be seen that the road cess collections having been suspended under the orders of Government, the operations of the Committee during the year were only confined to those works for which there seemed to exist absolute necessity These works were carried on by means of a loan of Rs 25,000, which was granted somewhat late in the season by Government under the Public Works Loan Act All the works of the Committee were carried out during the year by the officers of the Public Works Department under the supervision of the Executive Engineer, Mr W H Wells, who is now the Committee's Engineer Most of the original works and repairs were not completed during the course of the year, owing to the estimates having been sanctioned too late in the season to admit of their timely execution, but it is reported that all of them were carried out before the end of December 1875 The state of the roads, culverts, and bridges is not generally satisfactory, and I hope that as funds become available the Committee will take steps to re-align and section the roads and put all the culverts and bridges in thorough repair It is gratifying to find that the system of stone-metalling has been found so successful in increasing the traffic, and consequently adding to the receipts from tolls Nothing was done towards the village roads, but the Committee have decided on a large extension of the system during the current year

4 The Chairman's report, dated the 8th ultimo, was received in this office only on the 28th idem

Dans les Etats de Sa Majeste Britannique autres que les Colonies ou les possessions étrangéres de Sa Majesté, la maniere de procéder sera la suivante —

I S'il s'agit d'une personne accusée—

La demande d'extradition sera addressée au Premier Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté pour les Affaires Etrangeres par le Ministre ou autre Agent Diplomatique de Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges A cette demande seront joints au mandat d'arrêt ou autre document judiciaire équivalent, délivré par un Juge ou Magistrat dûment autorisé à prendre connaissance des actes imputés à l'accusé en Belgique, ainsi que les dépositions authentiques ou les déclarations faites sous serment ou sous affirmation solennelle devant ce Juge ou Magistrat, énonçant clairement les dits actes, et contenant, outre le signalement de la personne réclamée, toutes les particularités qui pourraient servir à établir son identité

Le dit Secrétaire d'Etat transmettra ces documents au Premier Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique pour les Affaires Intérieures, qui, par un ordre de sa main et muni de son sceau, signifiera à l'un ou l'autre Magistrat de Police à Londres que la demande d'extradition a été faite, et le requerra, s'il y a lieu, de délivrer un mandat pour l'arrestation du fugitif

On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly

When the fugitive shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before the Police Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Police Magistrate in London If the evidence to be then produced shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in England, the Police Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender, sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal and a report upon the case

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner, which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians

II In the case of a person convicted—

The course of proceeding shall be the same as in the case of a person accused, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the fact, place, and date of his conviction The evidence to be produced before the Police Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged

After the Police Magistrate shall have committed the accused or convicted person to prison to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus, if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant

ARTICLE III

In the dominions of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, other than the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of His said Majesty, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows —

I In the case of a person accused—

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of His Majesty the King of the Belgians by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent of Her Britannic Majesty, accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Great Britain, together with duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath or upon solemn affirmation before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts and containing a description of the person claimed, and any other particulars which may serve to identify him

A la réception d'un semblable ordre du Secrétaire d'Etat, et sur la production de telle preuve qui, dans l'opinion de ce Magistrat, justifierait l'émission du mandat si le crime avait été commis dans le Royaume Uni, il délivrera le mandat requis

Lorsqu'alors le fugitif aura été arrêté, il sera amené devant le Magistrat de Police qui a lancé le mandat, ou devant un autre Magistrat de Police à Londres Si la preuve qu'on produira est de nature à justifier, selon la loi Anglaise, la mise en jugement du prisonnier dans le cas où le crime dont il est accusé aurait été commis en Angleterre, le Magistrat de Police l'enverra en prison pour attendre le mandat du Secrétaire d'Etat, necessaire à l'extradition, et il adressera immediatement au Secrétaire d'Etat une attestation de l'emprisonnement avec un rapport sur l'affaire

Aprés l'expiration d'un certain temps, qui ne pourra jamais être moindre de quinze jours depuis l'emprisonnement de l'accusé, le Secrétaire d'Etat par un ordre de sa main et muni de son sceau, ordonnera que le criminel fugitif soit livré à telle personne qui sera dûment autorisée à le recevoir au nom du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges

II S'il s'agit d'une personne condamnée—

La marche de la procédure sera la même que dans le cas d'une personne accusee sauf que le mandat a transmettre par le Ministre ou autre Agent Diplomatique, à l'appui de la demande d'extradition, énoncera clairement le crime pour lequel la personne réclamée aura été condamnée, et mentionnera le fait, le lieu, et la date du jugement La preuve à produire devant le Magistrat de Police sera telle qued' après la loi Anglaise elle établirait que le prisonnier été condamné pour le crime dont on l'accuse

Après que le Magistrat de Police aura envoyé la personne accusée ou condamnée en prison pour attendre l'ordre d'extradition du Secrétaire d'Etate cette personne aura le droit de réclamer une ordonnance d'habeas corpus, l'extradition droit alors être differee jusqu'aprés la décision de la Cour sur le renvoi de l'ordonnance, et elle ne pourra avoir lieu que si la decision est contaire au demandeur

ARTICLE III

Dans les Etats de Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges, autres que les Colonies ou possessions étrangéres de Sa dite Majesté, on procedera de la façon suivante —

I S'il s'agit d'une personne accusée—

The Minister for Foreign Affairs shall transmit the warrant of arrest, with the documents thereto annexed, to the Minister of Justice, who shall forward the same to the proper judicial authority, in order that the warrant of arrest may be put in course of execution by the Chamber of the Council (Chambre du Conseil) of the Court of First Instance of the place of residence of the accused, or of the place where he may be found

Le Ministre des Affaires Etrangeres transmettra le mandat d'arrêt, avec les pièces annexées, au Ministre de la Justice, qui fera parvenir les documents à l'autorité judiciaire, à l'effet de voir rendre le dit mandat d'arrêt exécutoire par la Chambre du Conseil du Tribunal de Première Instance du lieu de la résidence de l'inculpé, ou du lieu où il pourra être trouvé

The foreigner may claim to be provisionally set at liberty in any case in which a Belgian enjoys that right, and under the same conditions The application shall be submitted to the Chamber of the Council (Chambre du Conseil)

L'etranger pourra réclamer la liberté provisoire dans le cas où un Belge jouit de cette faculté et dans les mêmes conditions La demande sera soumise à la Chambre du Conseil

The Government will take the opinion of the Chamber of Indictments or Investigation (Chambre des Mises en Accusation) of the Court of Appeal, within whose jurisdiction the foreigner shall have been arrested

Le Gouvernement prendra l'avis de la Chambre des Mises en Accusation de la Cour d'Appel dans le ressort de laquelle l'etranger aura été arrêté

The hearing of the case shall be public, unless the foreigner should demand that it should be with closed doors

Within a fortnight from the receipt of the documents, they shall be returned, with a reasoned opinion, to the Minister of Justice, who shall decide and may order that the accused be delivered to the person duly authorized on the part of the Government of Her Britannic Majesty

Dans la quinzaine a dater de la réception des pieces, elles seront renvoyées avec l'avis motivé au Ministre de la Justice, qui statuera et pourra ordonner que l'inculpé soit livré à la personne qui sera dûment autorisée au nom du Gouvernement de Sa Majeste Britannique

II In case of a person convicted—

II S'il s'agit d'une personne condamnee—

The course of proceeding shall be the same as in the case of a person accused, except that the conviction or sentence of condemnation issued in original or in an authenticated copy, to be transmitted by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent in support of his requisition, shall clearly set forth the crime of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the fact, place and date of his conviction The evidence to be produced shall be such as would, according to the Belgian laws, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged

Le cours de la procedure sera le même que dans le cas d'une personne accusée, sauf que le jugement ou l'arrêt de condamnation délivre en original ou en expédition authentique, à transmettre par le Ministre ou l'Agent Diplomatique à l'appui de la demande d'extradition, enoncera clairement le crime pour lequel la personne reclamée aura éte condamnée, et mentionnera le fait, le lieu, et la date du jugement La preuve à produire sera telle que, conformément aux lois Belges, elle établirait que le prisonnier a ete condamne pour le crime dont on l'accuse

ARTICLE IV

A fugitive criminal may, however, be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant, if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which he exercises jurisdiction Provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police Magistrate in London He shall be discharged as well in the United Kingdom as in Belgium, if within fourteen days a requisition shall not have been made for his surrender by the Diplomatic Agent of his country, in the manner directed by Articles II and III of this Treaty

ARTICLE V

If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison be not surrendered and conveyed away within two months after such committal (or within two months after the decision of the Court upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus in the United Kingdom) he shall be discharged from custody, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary

PART VI

Bill of the Legislative Council of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 7th September 1876, and was referred to a Select Committee with instructions to make their report thereon in six weeks —

No 10 of 1876

A Bill to amend the Land Improvement Act, 1871.

Preamble

Whereas doubts have arisen as to the effect of certain provisions of the Land Improvement Act, 1871, and it is expedient, with a view to removing such doubts, to amend the said Act, It is hereby enacted as follows —

Local extent

1 This Act extends to the whole of British India,

Construction

It shall be read with, and taken as part of, the said Land Improvement Act, 1871, and it shall be deemed to have come into force on the twenty-eighth day of September, 1871, being the day on which the said Act came into force

Commencement

Amendment of Act XXVI of 1871, section 15

2 Section fifteen of the said Act is repealed and instead thereof the following section shall be substituted —

"15 All sums advanced under this Act shall, when they become due, be recoverable in all or any of the following ways —

(a) from the borrower as if they were arrears of land revenue due from him

(b) from the surety (if any) as if they were arrears of land revenue due from him

(c) out of the land to be improved as if they were arrears of land revenue due on account of such land

(d) out of the property comprised in the collateral security (if any) according to the terms of such security

Provided—

(e) that if the borrower is the landlord, any proprietary or cultivating interest which a tenant may have in the land to be improved shall not, unless the tenant has given such interest as collateral security for the advance, be liable to sale for the recovery of such advance

(f) that if the borrower is such a tenant as is mentioned in section seven, the landlord's interest in the land to be improved shall not be liable to sale for the recovery of the advance

(g) and if the advance is recovered from the surety or out of his property, to the exoneration of the borrower or of the land to be improved, the surety shall have the same claims and remedies against the borrower and the land to be improved as the Government had when the advance was due"

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Land Improvement Act (XXVI of 1871), section 14, provides that every certificate granted by a Collector making advances under the Act shall specify the amount of the advance, the position, extent and boundaries of the land to be improved, and the nature and amount of the security (if any) other than the land to be improved Section 15 then provides that the amount so specified shall be recoverable "from the person to whom the advance was made, or from any person who has become security for the repayment thereof, as if they were arrears of land revenue due by the person to whom the advance was made or by his security"

The remainder of section 15 is as follows —

"If any such sum cannot be so recovered, it shall be recoverable as if it was an arrear of revenue due on the land specified in the said certificate

"Provided that when the person to whom the advance was made is a landlord or a tenant having a right to transfer his interest in the land without the consent of the landlord, the interest of no person, other than such landlord or tenant, in the said land, shall be sold under this section"

On this clause two questions have arisen First, is the advance made by Government a first charge on the land to be improved in preference to all other charges, whether they have priority in point of time or not? Secondly, does the expression "land specified in the said certificate" include any land which might be given as security?

The object of the present Bill is to clear up these doubts, and it will be seen that it does so in accordance with what is believed to have been the principles on which the Act was framed, and with the undoubted understanding on which all loans have hitherto been made, received and recovered, viz that Government advances should be a charge on the land to be improved in preference to all other charges on, and interests in, such land, and that if other land be given as security, the Government advance should rank with other charges thereon in the same way as if it were an ordinary advance by a private person

It might also be contended that, on the strict literal construction of the clause, the surety must be sued before all the remedies against the principal are exhausted That is not just, and was not intended The opportunity is therefore taken of removing doubts on this head, and of making it clear that the remedies against principal and surety stand on the usual footing

Minute by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, dated 16th September 1876

THE Land Registration Act of 1876 having come into force on the 23rd August, the preliminary measures have been taken for carrying out the law A notification has, as required by law, been published in the Gazette by the Government of Bengal, fixing the 1st November next as the date before which applications must be made by the land-owning classes throughout the country for registering their titles and possession Special instructions have been sent to all district authorities to cause notices to this effect to be published without delay at the various public offices and stations, as prescribed by the law, with a reminder that a liability to penalties is incurred by failure to apply within six months from the date of such publishing The attention of the Board of Revenue has been drawn to the provision of the law which requires them to prepare rules within four months from the above-mentioned date, 23rd August, and a general Resolution by Government has been published, drawing the immediate attention of all revenue officers to the carrying out of this Act I desire now to record some general observations

My predecessor, Sir George Campbell, before making over charge of the Government to me, in the beginning of 1874, placed "the law of registrations and mutations" among the subjects on which legislation would probably be required in the immediate future During 1874, on examining this subject, I found that the necessity of causing, in the provinces under the Government of Bengal, an authoritative registration of landed tenures to be made by the land revenue authorities had been recognized from a very early period of British rule A Regulation of 1793 made it compulsory on all proprietors of land to register their names, that is, the Regulation directed that the name or names of the proprietor or proprietors of every estate should be inserted opposite to the estate This Regulation was to some extent obeyed The skeleton at least of a register of landed tenures was then made, and has ever since been kept up in all, or nearly all, the districts In some districts the register will be found to be more, in others less complete, in few or none will it be found fully complete, and in most it is defective, in not a few it is even very defective The definition of the shares in each estate in the register has always been deficient This deficiency has more and more perceptibly detracted from the usefulness of the register, as the sub-division of landed property has increased in the country generally Besides this cardinal defect, another main cause of incompleteness has been the failure or omission of the land-owning classes to register successions to, and transfers of, proprietary right No doubt it was legally in the power of the revenue authorities to insist on all proprietors coming forward to register Why they did not so insist it were fruitless now to inquire But evidently there were doubts as to the expediency of compelling registration, after it had once fallen into partial disuse, for fear of the disputes and difficulties which might be engendered by any renewal of the attempt to ensure a complete and general registration. That apprehensions of this nature were entertained by some whose authority commanded deference is clear from the records The expediency or otherwise of renewing the registers was much discussed during several years following 1837 The result was that the Government proposed fresh legislation on the subject Serious difficulties were, however, pointed out by high authority, and the project was for a time abandoned Subsequently the Board of Revenue, represented by Mr V H Schalch, resumed the consideration of the matter, pointing out that the legislature had been during recent years imposing many new duties on the proprietors of land, and that the authorities could not procure obedience to the law in these respects without knowing exactly the person or persons who, being in actual possession, were really answerable for the discharge of these duties As a general reply to the objections which had been so often raised, it was explained that if, in event of dispute as to the person entitled to be registered as in possession, the revenue authorities were empowered to decide the possession provisionally and summarily, there would be no interference with the existing law regarding the prosecution and decision of all questions of right in the civil courts

I therefore, on the 19th December 1874, intimated to the Legislative Council of Bengal my intention of asking its consideration to a Bill on the subject of the compulsory registration of the possessory titles in land The Bill was shortly afterwards introduced into Council in the beginning of 1875, by Mr H L Dampier, and after lengthened discussion and inquiry under his supervision, was passed by the Council in April 1876, received the assent of the Lieutenant-Governor, and after rectification of one matter of detail, received the assent of the Governor-General on the 9th August

In 1874 and 1875 we had it in contemplation to bring before the legislature a Bill for the appointment of managers in joint undivided estates, in order to prevent the tenantry being harassed by several collections of rent being made by the various sharers, a grievance of which there had been much complaint But it became evident that this measure would be distasteful to the proprietary classes, and, while adhering to our desire to protect the tenantry in this respect, we were disposed to seek for some other means of fulfilling it As the Bill for the registration of possessory titles advanced towards maturity, it appeared that some sections might be introduced protecting the tenantry of such estates against the chance of being troubled to pay rent more than once to several sharers in the estate, and that, if sections to this effect should be passed, the necessity of enacting a law for the appointment of managers in the joint undivided estates might be obviated Opinions tending in this direction were specially urged by some of the native members of the Legislative Council After some discussion, and with the assistance of the Advocate-General, some sections with this view were inserted in the Bill and passed Consequently I have relinquished the intention of proposing a Bill for appointing managers in these estates, for the present at all events, until we can see whether the desired protection is afforded to the tenantry by this Land Registration Act

The Bill, then, for the registration of possessory titles has become law under the title of the Land Registration Act VII (B C) of 1876 It remains for us to cause it to be carried into effect with promptitude and completeness

The object of the Act is nothing less than the registration of all proprietary titles in the lands of these provinces, not only of the lands paying revenue, but also of lands declared to be revenue-free The importance of such a registration in these extensive provinces, where the landed interest is the greatest of all interests, is too manifest to need any exposition here The magnitude of the task will be understood when we recollect that there are in these provinces more than 150,000 estates on the revenue-roll Besides, there are numerous revenue-free estates, mostly very small, the total number of which cannot be exactly stated until this registration shall have been completed Such a task cannot be successfully accomplished without strenuous exertions on the part of all our land revenue officers, and without zealous and faithful co-operation on the part of the land-owning classes That our officers will prove themselves fully equal to the strain from this work, I cannot doubt The greater the energy of the tension however, the shorter will be the duration Having observed with much satisfaction that the Bill received the concurrence and support of the zemindars generally during its passage through Council, I am sanguine that they quite see how beneficial the measure, if well carried out, is likely to be to their own interests, and that they will cheerfully render to the revenue authorities that assistance which will prove most effectual They will, I am sure, remember that the obligation now imposed by law is not new, but has legally existed from the beginning of British rule in Bengal

In carrying out the registration, the first point to be considered is time If no very particular attention were to be directed to the execution of a measure so comprehensive in its scope, yet so minute in its details, the operations might drag their length over many months, perhaps over several years On the other hand, if this great affair be thoroughly taken in hand and prosecuted with unceasing diligence to its conclusion, it will be finished within a very few months There can be no doubt that the delays and uncertainties of the former course would be very objectionable, and that the latter course is infinitely preferable I would impress this view most strongly upon the revenue officers and upon the landowners Our first care, therefore, has been to fix an early date on or before which the operations must be commenced, namely, the 1st November next (1876), and to ensure the earliest possible publication of this date in every district The law contemplates that all landowners, of all classes throughout the country, should apply for registration before that date, the registration should be actually effected within the ensuing six months, that is, before the 30th April 1877 After the lapse of six months from the publication of the above-mentioned date (1st November), that is, some time during April next, those who fail to apply for registration will be liable to penalties I trust, however, that the imposing of penalties in any case whatever will be happily avoided by reason of all cases having been duly and punctually disposed of within the prescribed time

It is to be expected, then, that during the weeks immediately preceding the 1st November, applications for registration will begin to be made, and will be pouring in day by day with increasing numbers For this our revenue officers must be fully prepared It will be most convenient that the applications be made in an uniform manner, and I have asked the Board of Revenue to be good enough to prepare, as soon as possible, forms of applications comprising headings and columns for the several items of information required These forms will be printed in sufficient numbers, and it is hoped that they will be in the hands of the Collectors in time for distribution among intending applicants

The law indeed provides that, until the new registration shall be effected, the existing registers shall have full force and effect The object of this, however, was only to make an ad interim provision It was never supposed that the existing registers would in any district be found sufficient in themselves, or that the new registration could be, as it were, grafted upon them The new law requires information which will rarely be met with in the old registers, and the forms which the Board of Revenue are preparing, as required by law, will be beyond the scope of even the best of those registers Consequently the preparation of new registers will have to be undertaken. And although in some cases some of the necessary entries might be made from the existing records, still others could not be properly made without the attendance of the landowner or of his agent And, under any circumstances, as a fresh registration has to be undertaken for all cases, it will be satisfactory that all proprietors, either in person or by agent, should be present to attest and verify all the entries in which they are concerned I therefore hope that all proprietors and sharers will make early application, in the form to be laid down by the Board, to the revenue officers for registration, and will cause the entries to be properly made and witnessed

Although it is expected that all revenue officers, all Collectors and their establishments, will render their best service in making these registers, and although this is specially an occasion when the staff of Sub-Deputy Collectors and Canoongoes, which has been organized during recent years, will prove useful, still we must be ready to meet some demand for additional assistance in some of the largest districts This may be best afforded by the appointing temporarily of some more Sub-Deputy Collectors and Canoongoes, whose salaries will be defrayed from the proceeds of the fees upon the registration that are to be levied under the Act In such districts as the following, where the number of estates is comparatively small, it is to be expected that the Collectors will be able to effect the registration without extra aid, namely —

Name of District	Number of revenue paying estates	Name of District	Number of revenue paying estates
Bankoora	570	Noakholly	1,630
Beerbhoom	556	Pubna	1,449
Bogra	660	Purneah	1,629
Chumparun	932	Rungpore	599
Dinagepore	748	Tipperah	1,932
Maldah	578	Rajshahye	1,506

In such districts as the following, where the number of estates is considerable or very large, I apprehend that some extra assistance will be needed, but I must ask the Commissioners and the Collectors to do their utmost with the existing means, so as to avoid incurring expense, namely —

Name of District	Number of revenue-paying estates	Name of District	Number of revenue paying estates
Burdwan	5,587	Gya	5,013
Dacca	7,909	Shahabad	5,134
Furreedpore	5,754	Monghyr	4,743
Mymensingh	6,312	Bhagulpore	4,372
Patna	6,482

In the two following districts, which are extraordinarily heavy, some special arrangements will have to be made —

Name of District	Number of revenue paying estates
Chittagong	28,997
Tirhoot	15,348

The last-named district has been divided into two, namely Mozufferpore and Durbhunga.

Referring to the procedure of the registration, I must beg the attention of all concerned to the several stages, namely —

(a)—The application for registration
(b)—The publication of the application
(c)—The inquiry (if any be needed)
(d)—The registration.

It is very desirable that the application should be made in reference to the information required by the Act. Therefore, as already stated, the Board of Revenue have been requested to prepare forms of application, which will be printed for distribution If all intending applicants will provide themselves with these forms, the work will be much facilitated

Upon the presentation of the application, notices will have to be issued, and the notice will in every case have to be published for one month before further proceedings can be taken The notices will be prepared beforehand, according to a prescribed form, so that they may be at once filled up and published. The greatest despatch will have to be used by the revenue authorities in the publication of the notices, which will be very numerous, and the utmost attention must be paid to this point

After the lapse of at least a month from the publication of the notices (in practice the time will be somewhat more than a month), the cases will come on again before the revenue authorities The points for consideration will be—

(1) Possession
(2) Succession
(3) Transfer

In the vast majority of cases, doubtless, there will not be any objection preferred by any opposing party, nor any circumstances needing inquiry, and the revenue officer will be able to make the registration

In some cases, however, there will probably be, indeed practically there must be, some objection raised, or some points mooted, which demand inquiry and further proceedings to be taken after the manner prescribed in the Act The revenue officer will then have to do one of two things, namely —

(1) To determine summarily the right to possession and deliver possession accordingly
(2) To refer the matter in dispute to the principal civil court in the district

The object of this Act being to prevent, and not to foster, civil litigation, the revenue officer is positively expected to undertake the summary determination of disputes regarding possession in all cases where he may deem that he can do so with advantage I should hope that the vast majority of cases will fall within this category He is not to trouble the civil court with a reference unless there be manifest advantage in that course If, in every case of dispute, he were to refer to the civil court, litigation would be needlessly augmented, and the courts might become suddenly overwhelmed with business Still, if the dispute clearly be of that description which can be more properly determined by the civil court, then he must make the reference I should hope, however, that these cases will prove to be comparatively few

For the summary determination of possession, the revenue officer has power to summon the necessary witnesses together with the parties He must be very careful in every case to fix an appropriate date for hearing when the parties and their witnesses can conveniently attend, and on that day he must without fail dispose of the case He must so arrange the dates for hearing that every case may be disposed of on the day on which it is called, and the parties and their witnesses may never be kept waiting I attach much importance to the adoption by the revenue officers of considerate precautions in this respect

It seems to me that the final preparation of the registers for the whole of each district will be facilitated if the following plan be adopted As soon as the order by the revenue officer for the registration has been recorded, let the requisite entries be prepared for the registers prescribed in section 4 of the Act, namely, A (revenue-paying), B (revenue-free), and C (mouzahwar) This should be done on separate sheets and in duplicate, one copy being filed in the registers, and the other with the record in case of accident. When the registration of the whole district shall be completed, it will only remain to re-arrange the sheets constituting the registers in alphabetical order, and to have them bound or copied fair if necessary It is to be remembered that the Board of Revenue will have prescribed the forms of the entries, and the mode of attestation by the parties concerned and by the revenue officer

By section 15 of the Act, it is ordered that the mouzahwar registers shall be kept according to local sub-divisions I hope that the Board of Revenue may find it convenient to fix these sub-divisions according to the thanas which have during recent years become the administrative units, and are now better recognized by the people than the old pergunnahs

The Board of Revenue will have to determine the language in which the registers are to be written If the people shall for this purpose prefer to use English, of which the knowledge is so fast spreading, that will be well The experience of other departments has shown that English is well suited for public registration in these provinces

It is desired, and indeed expected, that the registration of all revenue-paying lands shall be made simultaneously in all the districts of Bengal and Behar within the next few months, whether it need be made for the three districts of Orissa, which, being temporarily settled, ought already to have a tolerably sufficient registration, is a question on which the opinion of the Board of Revenue will be awaited

Further, it is hoped that the registration of the revenue-free lands in all the districts will be done at the same time But if in any district the Board of Revenue find that it would be expedient to postpone this part of the general registration, this might be done, I trust, however, that such postponement will be very rare

In conclusion, I must reiterate the expression of my confidence in the supervision to be exercised in this important matter by the Board of Revenue, and by the Member in charge, Mr V H Schalch, who was among the originators of the legislation on this subject, and whose counsel was most useful during the passage of the Bill through the legislature

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE PRESIDENCY DIVISION FOR THE YEAR 1875-76

GENERAL DEPARTMENT —MISCELLANEOUS

Calcutta, the 18*th September* 1876

READ—

• The Annual Administration Report of the Commissioner of the Presidency Division for the year 1875-76

This report is submitted by the present Commissioner, Mr Buckland, who did not take charge of the division until towards the close of the year under review. Sir William Herschel was Commissioner for the first three months of the year, and Lord Ulick Browne was in charge up to the 20th February last. In the 24-Pergunnahs district, and to a less degree in the Moorshedabad district, there were frequent changes in the office of Magistrate. Nuddea is the only district in the division in which the same officer held charge throughout the year. Notwithstanding, however, these unavoidable changes, and the disadvantages under which the Commissioner has laboured, he has submitted a report which the Lieutenant-Governor acknowledges as being full of suggestive observations, the outcome of a wide and matured experience

2 The work of the Presidency Commissioner is very onerous. In addition to the administration of four regular districts, there are the land revenue and excise of the town of Calcutta, and the settlement operations of the Commissioner of the Soonderbuns, as well as the administration of the Nuddea Rivers and Calcutta Canals, which are all under the control and supervision of the Commissioner It is proposed that the charge of the Soonderbun Commissionership, or of the excise of Calcutta, might be conveniently placed under the Board of Revenue, and the Lieutenant-Governor will consider whether any steps can be taken towards relieving the Commissioner's office in these respects

3 The local officers appear to have adequately discharged their duties of travelling and inspection. Mr Buckland well expresses the importance of the annual tour in the interior of the district —"Without a geographical knowledge of his district an officer must feel comparatively helpless, but having once personally mastered its geographical configuration, by visiting all the principal sub-divisions and police stations, and travelling over all the principal roads and rivers, he is enabled to fill in the map mentally, with the knowledge that he has simultaneously acquired of the local wants and wishes, and of the varying character and characteristics of the people of all classes with whom he has made himself acquainted in the course of his tour" The Lieutenant-Governor fully agrees with these remarks, and recognises that the district and sub-divisional officers in Bengal generally take their full share of duty on tour during the cold weather and other seasons

4 The rainfall during the year was plentiful and well distributed, and the rice harvest was abundant Cholera was more prevalent than usual, but in other respects it is said that owing to the favourable circumstances of the season the material condition of the people is slowly and steadily improving, and that the past year has shown a fair degree of progress Mr Smith, the Magistrate of Jessore, makes the following interesting remarks regarding the material condition of the people in his district —"Increased resort to our schools shows that education is advancing. Increases under the different heads of revenue show increasing wealth among the people Increasing resort to our courts of justice shows a growing knowledge of individual rights and the means of asserting and defending them. The rapid development of registration, and particularly of voluntary registration, shows an increasing want of greater security in respect of the title deeds of property, and of good faith in commercial dealings, while the numerous calls for the construction and maintenance of roads show a growing necessity for improved means of social and commercial communications. On every side there are marks of moral and material progress."

And again, the same Magistrate writes —"The largest and most important portion of the population is the cultivating class, in whose material comfort and social position there has lately been a marked improvement. The price of rice has risen, or perhaps it would be more correct to say that the value of silver has fallen, and while the ryot gets a better return for his crops, his rent has not risen in proportion. The general rise of prices does not very materially affect him, for so long as he has rice to support himself and his family, he does not much want anything else The little garden attached to the compound of his house supplies him with vegetables, and the nearest river or pond yields him fish " In the Jessore district, however, it must be remembered that the people are generally better off than they are in other metropolitan districts In the neighbouring district of Nuddea, for instance, there is no doubt that a wide spread indebtedness prevails among the peasantry In Moorshedabad, also, the prosperity of the people is far less marked than it is in the Eastern and Deltaic districts of Bengal

5 The Lieutenant-Governor has already expressed his belief that the depreciation in the value of silver has not yet affected the price paid for produce in the interior of the country, and though no doubt the lessened purchasing power of the rupee will ultimately influence favourably the position of the producer, whose wants are few and simple, it seems that the increased price of rice, which has been gradual for many years past, is due to intrinsic causes, such as pressure of population, a greater foreign demand, briskness of trade, and increased facilities of communication In most parts of Bengal it was the case that, during the past year, after a favourable harvest, the prices of food were lower than they had been for some years previous Even at the present time the prices are lower than is usual at this season of the year and show no tendency to rise The absolute value of the rupee has fallen, but it cannot be said that this fall has yet been accompanied by any diminution of purchasing power, so far as the great staples of local consumption are concerned The rise in the value of produce from this cause must, however, only be a matter of time, and the higher prices now paid in Calcutta must soon influence the prices paid in the interior at the large marts, and at last affect even the petty transactions between the local dealers and the cultivators themselves From an economic point of view, it must always be interesting to trace the effect of the fall in the value of silver as it gradually diffuses itself in India, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that the attention of officers will continue to be drawn to the operation of this difficult but most important occult movement, which so vitally and in so many ways concerns the interests and welfare of the country

6 The yield of indigo, which is a manufacture of first rate importance in the districts of Nuddea, Jessore, and Moorshedabad, was during the past year below the average The outturn of the present season also has been indifferent, except in Moorshedabad The following statement shows the average estimated outturn of indigo-dye from the division, as contrasted with the actual outturn of the past three years according to Messrs William Moran and Co 's market report :—

	Average	Crop of 1873 74	Crop of 1874 75	Crop of 1875 76
	Mds	Mds	Mds	Mds
Jessore	5 000	5,124	3 407	3 000
Nuddea	5,000	5,171	3,740	4,000
Moorshedabad	3,500	3,003	3,286	3,600

7 In the 24-Pergunnahs district a small cultivation has been revived in the Baraset sub-division, which was once a principal seat of the indigo industry The present system here is described as a perfectly voluntary one, in which the cultivators do not even take an advance for seed, but sow of their own accord The Lieutenant-Governor observes that the co-operative system of cultivating indigo which was introduced by some native landholders in the Nuddea district is not gaining ground, and that the past season has injured its popularity Silk spinning is nearly as important an industry in the Moorshedabad district as indigo As is well known, however, the silk manufacture has been decaying for years on account of the growing preference in Europe for woollen fabrics, and the decay has recently become more rapid owing to the greater competition of Chinese and Japanese silks with Bengal silk, and the increased production of silk in Italy The quantity of silk now spun yearly in the district of Moorshedabad is estimated at about 3,000 maunds According to the latest accounts, however, it is satisfactory to find that, in consequence of a failure in France and Italy, the prospects of Bengal silk are beginning to revive, and hopes are expressed that this reanimation will prove to be more than temporary Next to these industries, and especially over all the southern portion of the division in Jessore and the 24-Pergunnahs districts, comes the manufacture of goor and sugar The great centres of the sugar-refining trade are Santipore in Nuddea, Kote Chandpore and Keshobpore in Jessore, and Khalarooa in the 24-Pergunnahs

8 The trade of the division is very large and converges almost entirely on the metropolis From Jessore and the 24-Pergunnahs the principal exports into Calcutta are rice, sugar, betel-nuts, firewood, and vegetable produce, from Nuddea and Moorshedabad the exports are chiefly oil-seeds, pulses, wheat, and other cereals In the two latter districts the cold weather crops are of importance, but while the exports of rubbee cereals are proportionately large, the local supply of rice is insufficient for the population, and there are large imports of rice and paddy from Jessore and other districts especially into Nuddea The direction of the food-grain traffic in Jessore is from south to north as well as westwards to Calcutta Vast quantities of paddy stored on boats and rafts, as it is reaped, are exported from the Soonderbuns to the more thickly populated tracts in the north of the district, where the poorer ryots find it a profitable occupation to husk paddy for consumption and distribution The water communications throughout the division are on the whole ample, and form the special charge of officers of the Public Works Department The Eastern Bengal Railway runs through more than one hundred miles of the division. The East Indian Railway runs through the district of Moorshedabad, and there is a short Branch State Railway connecting Nulhatty with Azimgunge in this district The proposal to extend the system of State Branch Railways is under consideration, and there can be little doubt that several of the projected lines in this division, such as that from Calcutta to Jessore viâ Baraset and Bongong, from Calcutta to Diamond Harbour, from Ranaghat viâ Santipore and Kishnaghur to Bhugwangolah, if economically constructed so as not to exceed a cost of £3,000 or £4,000 per mile, will do much towards opening out the resources of the country, and also prove remunerative as revenue-paying enterprises Large as the trade of the Presidency Division is at present, it is capable of much increase if additional means of communication are afforded both for passengers and merchandise

9 The Commissioner observes that there has been no organised collection of statistics in the division beyond the collection of the ordinary vital statistics, and the registration of the river-borne traffic, which is supervised and controlled from head-quarters There have, however, been enquiries made in places, especially in the Chooadanga sub-division, and also in the Rampore Haut, Jhenidah, and Narail sub-divisions which have been reported to Government and published Statistical information has indeed been furnished from the division in various ways during the year such as was never before collected

10 In the 24-Pergunnahs district the local committees are found to have worked satisfactorily The Magistrate of Nuddea, Mr Stevens, has the following remarks on this subject in his report After stating that further experience has only confirmed him in the opinion that a committee is an inefficient ruler when the area under supervision is too large, he writes—"A Committee does well enough when it has to deal with work falling within the experience of all its members, though even here the power, influence, and knowledge of the members are very unequal I have no objection to a school, or even municipality, being managed by a committee, but it cannot be denied that a large committee is not adapted to administer the roads or schools of a district Each member knows the circumstances of little more than his own neighbourhood, and no one really takes the trouble to make himself acquainted with the wants of the whole district The result is that in the Education Committee the Magistrate and the Deputy Inspector of Schools, and in the Road Cess Committee the Magistrate and the District

Engineer, are the only persons who are in a position to compare the requirements of different localities The sub-divisional officers speak more favourably of the Branch Road Cess Committees, and probably with reason, since they have to deal with comparatively small tracts" The Lieutenant-Governor is ready to admit that these remarks are entitled to weight as coming from an officer of Mr Stevens' judgment and experience His Honor must, however, point out that, so far as the functions of the Central Committee relate to matters of control and principle, they are rightly discharged by the Magistrate of the district, who is ex-officio Chairman of the Committee, (guided of course by the District Engineer or the Inspector of Schools, as the case may be,) and it is probable that the advice and assistance of the unofficial members of the Central Committee will be as efficacious in dealing with the details of administration in the neighbourhood of the head-quarters of the district, whether for schools or roads, as that of the Branch Committees is found to be in the sub-divisions of the district In regard to the construction and repair of village roads, embankments, and water-courses, to the expediency or otherwise of a new road, or repairs of existing roads, to the supervision of distant patshalas and of local training schools, or in determining the necessity of a particular grant-in-aid, all matters which require local knowledge and leisure, such as too often cannot be afforded by the Magistrate, it is manifest that the local committees, if their services are rightly utilized, must furnish a valuable agency The Lieutenant-Governor must add, moreover, that in the districts of the Presidency Division, where education and intelligence are so widely diffused, there is less excuse than elsewhere if the district committees are less useful auxiliaries to the Magistrate than they are found to be in other parts of the province

11 The Lieutenant-Governor is very glad to see that in the district of Nuddea several zemindars are commended by the Collector, and their names brought to the notice of Government Foremost amongst these is Mr Sibbald, of whom the Collector says—"This gentleman is exactly what a landlord ought to be, and I can only regret that in all probability his retirement from India will before long deprive the zemindars of a model, the ryots of a liberal friend, and Government of a valuable aid" Messrs Shirreff, Hills, and Macnaughten, P Smith and A Hills of Patkabaria, are also mentioned as good landlords Baboos Bamondas Mookherjee and Jugut Chunder Mookherjee, Molla Khodadad Khan, Ameer Biswas, Baboo Nuffer Pal Chowdhry, and Baboo Prosonno Chunder Roy are all favourably spoken of by the local officers

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H J S COTTON,

Junior Secy to the Govt of Bengal

RESOLUTION ON THE ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE DACCA DIVISION FOR THE YEAR 1875-76.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—MISCELLANEOUS—No 2550

Calcutta, the 15th September 1876

READ—

The Annual Administration Report of the Commissioner of the Dacca Division for the year 1875-76

THE Lieutenant-Governor has to thank Mr Peacock for a report which treats adequately of the various departments of administration and omits no subject of importance The size of the Dacca Division was increased during the year by the transfer to it of the district of Tipperah, which had previously formed a part of the Chittagong Commissionership The Dacca Division now comprises an area of 18,658 square miles, and a population of about 9¼ millions

2 Generally speaking, the Commissioner and the district officers made careful annual tours and thoroughly inspected the internal economy of their districts the Collector of Dacca only was in camp a much less time than usual, and he has not furnished a satisfactory explanation of the shortness of his absence from head-quarters The Lieutenant-Governor, however, is aware that Mr Lyall possesses so intimate a knowledge of his district, that there is less necessity for his proceeding on a tour of inspection than there is in the case of other officers

3 The rainfall during the year was scanty and not favourably distributed, there was heavy rain in June and insufficient rain in October, but upon the whole it appears that the outturn of the crops cannot be said to have been below the average The rice was generally an average crop, and the cultivation of jute was not in any way affected by the unusual weather In Backergunge the yield both of cocoanuts and betel-nuts was fairly abundant There was a serious flood in Tipperah in the early part of August, owing to the river Goomtee bursting its embankments in the vicinity of the Sudder station It was at one time apprehended that Comillah itself would be flooded, but energetic measures were adopted by the Magistrate and the danger was averted The early rice crop, however, which was just ripening, was completely destroyed throughout the area of the inundation, which extended over 250 square miles of country

4 The material condition of the people is reported to be one of steady improvement Mr Lyall, the Magistrate of Dacca, writes—"The condition of the ryots is excellent, they pay low wages, and are getting high prices for rice as well as for their other crops, very nearly the whole of the benefit of the rise in price caused by the famine year is enjoyed by them, and the ryots of this part of Bengal are decidedly prosperous" In Furreedpore the people are not quite so well off as they are in Dacca In Backergunge many of the ryots are said to be in debt, but "that they are so," writes Mr Peacock, the Commissioner, "is entirely their own fault, with a soil of such wonderful fertility that it is by no means unusual for a single acre of land just touched by the ploughshare to yield 30 maunds of paddy, with a system of rivers and khals and channels that enable them either to sell the produce of their land to traders within a few yards of where it is grown, or to transport it themselves to the nearest market, and lastly, living in a district which, by reason of its wonderful water system, is almost independent of the rainfall, and where consequently a failure of crops is almost an impossibility, and a bad harvest of the rarest occurrence, the ryot of Backergunge, if he is not well to do, has only himself to thank" The Lieutenant-Governor, however, trusts that in fact the indebtedness of the Backergunge peasantry is not so widespread as is stated no doubt, the system of advances is common, but it is believed that the debts incurred are rapidly paid off, and that the ryots, as a community, are far less involved in Backergunge than they are in less favoured districts nearer Calcutta In Tipperah it is certain that the people are very well off

5. The vast river-borne trade of the districts of this division is now for the first time being accurately ascertained by the registration statistics compiled by Government The subject, however, cannot be adequately reviewed until the results of more than one year's registration have been collated at head-quarters Rice and jute are the most important staples of export produce The export of rice from the Backergunge district alone amounts to about forty lakhs of maunds per annum A considerable share of the jute trade is in the hands of Europeans, with their head-quarters at Naraingunge On the authority of Mr David, it is said that about fifteen lakhs of maunds of jute a year are shipped from Naraingunge, and the Commissioner adds that a similar quantity passes down the Seetul Luckeea and Megna rivers in boats bound direct for Calcutta The Lieutenant-Governor, however, sees reason for believing that these figures are an excessive estimate Very much more jute comes into Calcutta along the Jamoona from the districts of Northern Bengal than from the Dacca district, but it is not probable that so much as thirty lakhs of maunds come into Calcutta even by this route The Lieutenant-Governor gathers from the returns already before Government that the total registered importation of jute into Calcutta during the present year will amount to about eighty lakhs of maunds, of which one-half will be consigned all the way by country boats, about thirty lakhs by the Eastern Bengal Railway, about eight lakhs by river steamers, and the remainder by road routes The principal river marts in the Dacca Division are Goalundo, Naraingunge including Modongunge, and Dacca, the Backergunge marts of Nulchitty, Burrisal and Jhalokatty, and Bhoyrob Bazar and Kaieemgunge in Mymensingh The following statement furnishes an abstract of the amount and value of the registered river-borne traffic of these marts during the first six months of the present year 1876 —

In the Statistical Department of Government, detailed statements are under preparation showing the traffic of the above-mentioned and of other marts in the division, the routes taken by the country boats, and the source of supply and destination of each of the items of traffic. It need only be mentioned here that the totals of the steamer and railway traffic are not included in the above statement

6. The Lieutenant-Governor observes with satisfaction that, notwithstanding the unsettled relations which exist in many parts of the Dacca Division between landlord and tenant, there have been no agrarian disturbances arising out of them. There is, however, writes Mr Peacock, the same feeling among the zemindars that has been before brought to notice, that they are not getting their fair share of the increased value of the produce of the land, and there is the same uncertainty as to the best way of asserting their claims, which has been gradually growing upon them. There is the same spirit of independence, and the same determination to resist enhancement among the ryots The merits of the question are most difficult, but they have received anxious attention from competent authorities on all sides, and the Lieutenant-Governor earnestly hopes that the adoption of sound and recognized principles to guide the courts in the determination of rent suits, and in the settlement of many long-standing differences, will shortly be settled by legislation The Lieutenant-Governor would add also that there is much truth in the remark of the Commissioner, that intervention at the right time on the part of the authorities in actual personal communication with the parties concerned will often do more good than all the civil court decrees that can be obtained, and it is satisfactory to see that in several cases in the Dacca Division mentioned by Mr Peacock, the personal influence of the revenue officers discreetly exercised has brought serious disputes to an amicable termination

7 The remarks of the Commissioner regarding the operation of the Road Cess Act are also worthy of notice It is stated that the ryots are now, and have been for months past, taking copies of such portions of the returns and valuation rolls as relate to their holdings, with the obvious intention of resisting anything beyond the legal demand At the same time the Lieutenant-Governor observes that it is said that at least in one district of the division the zemindars are in the habit of levying a sum from the ryots in excess of what the Road Cess Act allows, and that in one estate recently taken charge of by the Court of Wards, in which the owner was esteemed to be popular as being a landlord considerate towards his ryots, this levy had been at a rate of four times the legitimate demand It seems remarkable that the ryots should acquiesce in such demands if their independence is really so great as it is stated to be The attitude of all classes towards the Road Cess Act is said to be favourable,and shows that an appreciation of facilities for intercommunication is generally felt in the division

8 The settlement of the large Government estate of Tooshkhally has been rapidly proceeded with during the last field season by Mr Gomess, the Commissioner of the Soonderbuns. Opposition was encountered as was expected, but it was firmly met and put down, and more than three-quarters of the estate have already been settled at fair and reasonable rates The Lieutenant-Governor accords due credit to Mr Gomess for the tact and firmness he has displayed in the management of these operations

9. Mr. Peacock brings to notice that the provisions of the old law regarding the transmutation of the names of proprietors of estates are practically a dead letter. The Bill for the compulsory registration of possessory titles has, however, now become law, and will be enforced as soon as possible—it is hoped by November next. There can be little doubt that the operation of this law will lead to important results all over Bengal, and especially in the eastern districts of the province

10. During the past two years, the excise revenue of the Dacca Division has increased by more than Rs. 88,000, with an actual decrease in the quantity of consumption of both opium and ganja. The decrease in the consumption of ganja, which has been general throughout the division, is especially satisfactory.

11 It is not necessary to do more than allude to the destruction of the Goalundo Railway terminus and civil station during the rainy season of 1875. But the Lieutenant-Governor desires to acknowledge the judicious arrangements made by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Mr. Posford, at the time of the inundation, which were carried out without hurry and confusion, so that there was little preventible damage, no loss of life, and but little loss of private property

12 Education continues to make satisfactory progress, and female education is said to be spreading, if not rapidly, at least steadily, in the three districts of Dacca, Mymensingh, and Backergunge, where special measures are taken to promote it The Educational Committees are said to take great interest in their duties

13 Many of the large landholders in the Dacca Division are absentees from their estates The conduct of several zemindars is, however, brought favourably to the notice of Government by the district officers The names of Nawab Abdool Ghunnee, C S I, of his son Khajeh Ahsanoollah, Khan Bahadoor, and of Rajah Kali Narain Roy Chowdhry, all of Dacca, are conspicuous as usual for their liberality and good behaviour as landlords Among other names mentioned are Baboo Soorja Kant Acharjee, Srimotee Bissessuree Debya, and Sadut Ally Khan of Mymensingh, Moonshee Gholam Ally Chowdhry, Baboo Mohiny Mohun Das, and Baboo Shyama Sunker Mozoomdar of Fureedpore, and the Rajah of Tipperah, and Baboo Annoda Persaud Roy of Sarail in the Tipperah district

RESOLUTION ON THE ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE TRIBUTARY MEHALS OF THE SOUTH-WEST FRONTIER FOR THE YEAR 1875-76

POLITICAL

The 14th September 1876

READ—

The Report and accompanying returns regarding the Administration of the Tributary Mehals of the South-West Frontier during the year 1875-76

Read again—

The Report for the previous year, with the orders of Government thereon

The report on the administration of the South-West Frontier Tributary Mehals during the past year was prepared by Mr Robinson prior to his availing himself of privilege leave, but its submission was delayed pending the receipt of the usual statistical statements from the several States These have been subsequently compiled and submitted with the report by Mr Oliphant, who officiated as Commissioner during Mr Robinson's absence

2 The account given of the weather, of the crops, and of the health of the people, shows that in the past there was little to complain of even as compared with the previous year, which was one of exceptional prosperity There was a partial failure of the rubbee crops, but these are of comparatively little importance in the part of the country affected.

3 It is to be regretted that the circumstances referred to by the Commissioner prevented him from making any tour among the Tributary States His report is consequently wanting in detail and political interest The absence of roads and bridges, and the great distance from the Commissioner's head-quarters, at which many of the States are situated, render it impossible that that officer should, with due regard to his other responsible duties, visit more than a portion of the tributary territory during any one year The Lieutenant-Governor hopes, however, that Mr Robinson will be able to make arrangements for seeing more of these States during the present year In the past cold weather the only State visited was Sirgoojah, which immediately adjoins the Ranchee district. But, as previously arranged, a meeting was held in this territory with the Rajah of Korea also, who attended for the purpose of being invested with a khillut on his installation, accompanied by some of the influential residents of his State

4 The account given by the Commissioner of the contented and apparently prosperous condition of the inhabitants of Sirgoojah is very satisfactory It is stated that no persons had any complaints to prefer on the occasion of the Commissioner's visit

5. The backward condition of the Tributary Mehals in the matter of roads and communications, the want of education among their inhabitants, and the absence of the means and even of the desire on the part of the Chiefs to develope the resources of their several estates, is dwelt on by the Commissioner It is far from desirable that new conditions of existence should be forced too rapidly on a people who are evidently not yet fitted to appreciate the advantages of a high state of civilization The present system of administration appears to be admirably adapted to their wants, and is one on which much of their present contentment and prosperity is dependent. The Lieutenant-Governor is not therefore prepared to entertain any proposals for forcing the current of events in these particular States more rapidly than the progress of education and the improvement of communications will necessitate To these matters the attention of the Commissioner was called in last year's Resolution, and the Lieutenant-Governor is glad to find that the Commissioner has in consequence, when opportunity offered, impressed upon the Chiefs, apparently with some effect, the importance of adopting measures, as far as their resources will admit, for the improvement of the condition of the people and the revenues of their estates

6 The account given of the condition of the schools in Sirgoojah is not very favorable But a fair commencement appears to have been made, and the Lieutenant-Governor is convinced that, when the warm interest taken by Government in the matter of the maintenance of these institutions is fully realised, improvement will gradually become apparent It is a question worthy of the consideration of the Commissioner whether some of the illaquadars or more important landholders in the mehals might not be induced to send some of their children for instruction to Ranchee Should the question of expense be the only hinderance to the adoption of such a scheme, the matter is one which will be favourably considered by Government

7 In the Resolution on the report of the previous year, the Lieutenant-Governor asked for some account of the system of police existing in the frontier States This the Commissioner has now supplied The officers who exercise the powers corresponding to those of Sub-Inspectors of police in regulation territory are apparently hereditary functionaries, remunerated by grants of land which they hold on favorable terms. Their position among the people apparently renders them proof against much of the temptation to wrong-doing to which they are exposed from the absence of direct supervision, and the Commissioner gives what is on the whole a very favorable account of the manner in which their duties are discharged.

8 The crime returns of the past year again exhibit some increase, but chiefly under minor heads. The total number of offences of all kinds reported was 487 with 980 persons, against 408 cases with 735 accused in the previous year The comparative infrequency of serious crime among the simple inhabitants of these frontier States has previously been the subject of remark The practice of going armed, and that of drinking to excess, however, lead not unfrequently to hasty crimes of violence In the past year the number of cases of culpable homicide and murder was ten, the same as in the previous year. Six cases of dacoity and robbery are recorded Burglaries, forgeries, and false charges are reported to have diminished

9 The administration of justice by the several Chiefs has continued to be satisfactory The result of the committals made by them is particularly creditable. Only three appeals appear to have been preferred from their decisions Some of the appeals preferred in previous years appear to be still pending before the Commissioner These should be disposed of without further delay if possible

10. Sirgoojah —As noticed above, this was the only State visited by the Commissioner in the course of the year, and its condition was found to be satisfactory. The Lieutenant-Governor received with much concern the intelligence of the death of Rajah Bindessuree Persad Singh Deo, Bahadoor, the late Rajah, a Native nobleman of whom successive Commissioners had always spoken in the terms of the highest praise, and whose merits had been fully recognised by Government The arrangements consequent on his death have been the subject of a separate correspondence. In consideration of the great expense attendant on the marriage of the heir-apparent of the estate, the Commissioner reports that he sanctioned the grant to him of a sum of Rs 5,000, in addition to the Rs 10,000 previously granted by Government Seeing that a considerable surplus of current revenue remained after providing for the administration of the State during the past year, the Lieutenant-Governor approves of the action taken by the Commissioner

11 Oodeypore —Orders have been separately issued for placing the son of the late Rajah Bindessuree Persad Singh Deo Bahadoor in charge of the State in succession to his father

12 Gangpore —The Rajah Rughoonath Seekur Deo has been restored to the charge of this State The punishment inflicted on him for his previous misconduct will, it is hoped, have the effect of making him thoroughly alive to his duties and responsibilities The Commissioner should be careful to keep himself informed of the manner in which the administration of this State is carried on

13 Jushpore and Bonai.—The mischievous belief in the power of witches prevails in these States, as well as in Gangpore The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to observe that the Chiefs have taken proper proceedings in cases where imputations of witchcraft have been made

14 Korea —There was no serious crime in this State during the year. Towards its close the young Rajah was invested with the management of affairs The Lieutenant-Governor hopes to hear that in his administration he will keep in view the words of counsel addressed to him on his installation by the Commissioner

15 Chang Bukhar —The attention of the Chief of this State should be again called to the insecure state of his lock-up, and he should be informed that it is considered unsatisfactory that due care is not taken for the custody of prisoners charged with serious offences

16 Singbhoom —The attention of the Commissioner is invited to the request made in paragraph 7 of last year's Resolution for information as regards the administration of the Political States in this district

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE SALT MARKET FOR THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1876-77

No 677B, dated Fort William, the 8th September 1876

From—W H GRIMLEY, Esq , Officiating Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L P ,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department

A MONEY, Esq., C B

I AM directed by the Member in charge to submit the following report on the state of the salt market for the first quarter of 1876-77, comprising the months of April, May, and June last

2 The quantity of salt consumed (i.e. the quantity of total clearances of salt of all descriptions) in the quarter under report amounted to maunds 16,58,405-13, against maunds 18,67,319-34 in the previous quarter, and

maunds 16,91,035-24-14 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year, and the total amount of duty levied was Rs. 51,44,541-2-3, against Rs. 57,88,397-8-4 and Rs 52,91,435-14 10 in the previous and corresponding quarters respectively The difference between the above figures and those previously reported is owing to the duty, Re 1-13 per maund, paid at Bombay on Bombay salt having by an oversight been included in the latter

3 The quantity of excise salt sold in Cuttack, Balasore, Pooree, and the 24-Pergunnahs during the present quarter from the stock of the different season's manufacture, and the quantity which remained in store at the close of the quarter, are shewn in the following table, I —

LIBERALITY OF BABOO ANODA PERSAD ROY, A ZEMINDAR OF TIPPERAH

STATISTICAL DEPARTMENT

Calcutta, the 19th September 1876

A Memorandum, No 160, dated 29th August 1876, from the Commissioner of Dacca, with its enclosures, regarding the relief of distress in the Tipperah district

THE rainy season of 1875 was marked by disastrous inundations in the district of Tipperah, which seriously affected the outturn of the winter rice crops, especially in the sub-division of Brahmunberiah In consequence a limited distress prevailed during May, June, and July last among the poorer classes All serious effects, however, were averted by the liberality of the zemindars and the vigilance of the local officers It is reported that the zemindars all behaved well and were considerate to their ryots, especially Baboo Anoda Persad Roy, Baboo Eshan Chunder Roy, and the Rajah of Hill Tipperah

2 Baboo Anoda Persad Roy, of Cossim Bazar, opened out five centres of relief operations, where rice and money were distributed to all deserving persons in need of relief His agent was also directed to find out middle class families who, though feeling the pressure most keenly, would not resort to the relief centres, and to administer relief to them An expenditure was incurred amounting altogether to Rs 2,300

3 The Lieutenant-Governor takes this opportunity of acknowledging the liberality of Baboo Anoda Persad Roy, who has set a most excellent example to other zemindars, and His Honor is glad to see also that his example was followed by others

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H J. S COTTON,

Junior Secy to the Govt. of Bengal.

The mean barometer, as likewise the dry and wet bulb thermometer means, are derived from the twenty-four hourly observations made during the day

The dew-point is computed with the Greenwich constants The figures in column 10 represent the humidity of the air, the complete saturation of which being taken as unity The receiver of the lower rain gauge is 1½ feet, and that of the anemometer 70 feet 10 inches above the level of the ground The velocity of wind, as indicated by Robinson's anemometer, is registered from noon to noon

NOTIFICATION

The 25th September 1876 —It is hereby notified that, under Section 7 of Act XVI of 1875, the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has been pleased to prescribe the following rules for ascertaining and determining what spirit imported into British India shall be deemed to have been effectually and permanently rendered unfit for human consumption —

1 Spirit imported into British India for use exclusively in arts, manufactures, or chemistry which has been rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption, is subject only to an ad-valorem duty of ten per cent under Article 32, Schedule A of the Indian Tariff Act XVI of 1875

2 Whenever such spirit is imported from the United Kingdom into any port of the Bengal Presidency, before it can be admitted at the reduced rate of duty as aforesaid, the importer must satisfy the Collector of Customs at that port that the spirit has been rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption, by the production of a certificate from a competent Customs or Excise authority of the United Kingdom that the spirit has already been subjected, under proper supervision in the United Kingdom, to a process by which it has been rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption

3 If the importer cannot so satisfy the Collector of Customs, the latter shall cause such spirit to be examined, and, if necessary, rendered unfit for consumption in the manner hereinafter described as applicable to spirit imported from other countries than the United Kingdom

4 Whenever such spirit as aforesaid is imported from other countries than the United Kingdom into any port of the Bengal Presidency, the Collector of Customs at that port shall send a sample of such spirit to the Chemical Examiner for examination and report, at the expense of the importer, and if the Chemical Examiner shall certify that the spirit has been rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption, the Collector of Customs shall admit it at the reduced rate of duty

5 Whenever imported spirit is required to be rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption by officers of Customs Department, the ingredient to be used for admixture with the spirit shall be Caoutchoucine, and it shall be mixed with the spirit in the proportion of one and a half per cent

6 Under the Board's sanction in each instance, Wood Naptha can be used instead of Caoutchoucine in special cases, where the latter ingredient would damage the spirit so as to make it unsuitable for the purpose intended

7 The ingredient, however, before its admixture with the spirit, must be tested by the Chemical Examiner to Government, who must certify to the Collector of Customs that it is Caoutchoucine of the proper strength, fitted, if used in the proportions mentioned in Rule 5, to effectually and permanently render unpalatable and unfit for human consumption the spirit with which it is mixed

8 Any expense which may be incurred by the Collector of Customs in rendering spirit unfit for human consumption, or in ascertaining that it has been so rendered, must be paid by the importer

Extract from a letter, dated 13th May 1876, from the Superintendent, Methodist Episcopalian Missions for Rohilkhand, to Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces

MAY I also be permitted to ask one question In the Marriage Act XV of 1872, part I, paragraph 5, (1) (page 9), it is stated that "marriages may be solemnized in India" (1) "by any person who has received episcopal ordination provided that the marriage be solemnized according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of the church of which he is a minister"

This cannot refer alone to the Church of England and the Church of Rome, for in part IV, paragraph 32—"Any person who has received episcopal ordination, but who is not a clergyman of the Church of England or of the Church of Rome," is referred to

The ordained ministers of the "Methodist Episcopal Church" in India have all received "episcopal ordination" The form of ordination is the same, or nearly the same, as of the Church of England Our ministers are all under the direction of the bishops of our Church No one but a bishop can ordain to the ministry in our Church Our own American Government accepts our Church as episcopal

Hence, with the above clause in the law, and with these well-known facts concerning the Methodist Episcopal Church, are not all ministers of this Church, who have been duly ordained by a bishop, authorized to solemnize marriages without any further license?

The importance of this question lies in the fact that frequent transfers all over India cause much correspondence as marriage registrars, while if by virtue of the Act we are authorized, having been duly episcopally ordained, then all this extra licensing and changing of licenses each year, as men are transferred, is useless As all of our ordained ministers are members of conferences which meet annually, and also under the direction of a bishop, there could be no danger of abuse or looseness in this work, as our own law in our Church does not allow any one to solemnize marriages who is not a regularly ordained minister

As we are thus regularly episcopally ordained, we trust that Government may consider it expedient to allow us to solemnize marriages by virtue of our ordination, as our own Government does in the United States of America

From—T J CHICHELE PLOWDEN, ESQ, Offg Under-Secy to the Govt of India,
To—The Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces

I AM directed to acknowledge your letter No 954A, dated the 16th June last, and in reply to say that the Officiating Advocate General having been consulted, has expressed his opinion that it would be unsafe to accept clergymen of the Episcopal Methodist Church of America as coming within the purview of Section 5, Clause 1 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act of 1872.

Overland Parcel Post

(1) Parcels are received at any Post Office in India under the conditions and rates of charge mentioned below for transmission to the following countries, viz —

COUNTRIES	Rate of charge per lb or fraction thereof Prepayment compulsory	Remarks respecting special conditions, &c, applicable to particular Countries
	Annas
United Kingdom	8	The prepayment carries the parcel as far as London, any additional charge which may become due on account of British custom duty or carriage beyond London being realised from the addressee Parcels must not exceed £50 in value Any parcel which on examination of the declaration at Bombay may be found to exceed this value will, instead of being forwarded by the Overland Parcel Post, be transferred to the Bombay Agency of the P & O S N Company for transmission independently of the Post Office and subject to such regulations and charges on delivery as may be applicable thereto under the Company's regulations (NOTE —The Company's present charge is an ad valorem rate of 2 per cent, which does not include Marine or other Insurance) The attention of the public is invited to the fact that the British Post Office has no connection with the Overland Parcel Post, all arrangements out of India are made by the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company and enquiries proceeding from the United Kingdom should be addressed to that Company's Office, 122 Leadenhall Street London, E C The rules governing the despatch of parcels from the United Kingdom to India are, however, published in the British Postal Guide, and exhibited in every British Post Office Persons in India ordering goods to be sent out by parcel post may refer the sender to the above means of information about the transmission of parcels
Ceylon	8	The prepayment carries the parcel to destination Should any custom duty become due, the amount will be charged on delivery Parcels must not contain any jewellery
Germany Austria Hungary	8	The prepayment carries the parcel to destination Should any custom duty become due, the amount will be charged on delivery See also Rule 9 respecting compensation for damage or loss

Sweden Norway Switzerland	8	The prepayment carries the parcel to the limit of German conveyance, a separate charge being made on delivery for conveyance beyond the German frontier as well as for custom duty, should any become due From Rule 3 it will be seen that there must be also a second or duplicate declaration of contents and value See also Rule 9 respecting compensation for damage or loss

(3) Every parcel should be accompanied by a separate paper headed with the address of the parcel and containing a declaration of its contents and value under the signature of the sender Below the signature the address of the sender should be given

SETTLEMENT OF THE SONTHAL PERGUNNAHS

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE

The 25th September 1876

READ—

A letter No 1693R, dated the 22nd August 1876, from the Commissioner of the Bhagulpore Division, submitting the report of the progress of the settlement operations in the Sonthal Pergunnahs for the year 1875 76

Read again—

The Resolution of this Government, dated the 25th September 1875, on the report of the above operations for the year 1874-75

THE present report embraces a period of 14 months, from the 1st May 1875 to the 30th June 1876 It was found convenient to adopt this arrangement, in order that the report might show the completion of the field enquiries The whole of these enquiries were brought to a close by the 30th June, and the greater part of the subordinate establishment was then discharged. But the progress made in the work of actual settlement has not realized the anticipations of the Commissioner

2. The report of last year showed that there were about 4,000 villages remaining for enquiry, besides 773 villages in which the enquiries had been taken in hand but not completed. The 4,000 villages eventually proved to be 4,443 in number, and there were therefore 5,216 villages which had to be visited personally by the Assistant Settlement Officers, their areas measured or approximately estimated and the lands classified This work has all been completed The number of villages requiring to be settled is given in the report as 6,814, namely, the 4,443 villages above referred to, and 2,371 which had been enquired into last year, and remained for settlement But it is not clear why the 773 villages in which the enquiries had not been completed last year are not taken into account in this enumeration It would seem that the real number of villages for settlement must have been 7,587, and some further explanation upon this point appears to be required The number of villages actually settled up to the 30th June was 2,697, leaving a large balance still to be completed

3 The settlement work was divided between the Settlement Officer, Mr B Wood, and the Deputy Settlement Officer, Mr Smith After the local enquiries in a village had been conducted by an Assistant Settlement Officer, whose duty it was to measure and classify the lands, the village was made over to one of the two above-mentioned officers, who determined the rental to be paid, and the person with whom the settlement should be concluded The Commissioner is of opinion that Mr Wood did all that was possible to be done, though he was much delayed by the obstructiveness of the manager of the Munihari estate Mr Wood settled 1,653 villages during the year The outturn of work by Mr Smith, who completed 1,044 villages, is less favourably noticed, but it is stated that he worked very satisfactorily during the latter part of the season

4 After making every allowance for the difficulties which had to be surmounted, the Lieutenant-Governor is compelled to conclude that the Commissioner's forecast of the results of the season's operations was too sanguine, and that it could not reasonably have been anticipated that the settlement would be concluded within the time proposed for it Only two localities are mentioned in the report as having involved unexpected delays, but the completed villages are only 40 per cent of the whole number for settlement The Lieutenant-Governor desires that every effort may now be used to finish the work with as little delay as possible The Commissioner is authorized to retain the services of the Deputy Settlement Officer on this duty till the end of November if necessary

5 The statements appended to the report show that, in 1,653 villages settled by Mr Wood during the year, the former jumma receivable by the zemindar was Rs 1,63,567, and that the rental under the new settlement is Rs 1,83,863, showing a net increase of Rs 20,296 In 1,044 villages settled by Mr Smith, the corresponding figures are Rs 41,468 and Rs 55,566, showing an increase of Rs 14,098 But it is explained that notwithstanding these additions to the proprietor's rent-roll, the amount which the ryots will have to pay is really less than under the old arrangement, a large percentage of the receipts having formerly been absorbed by farmers and other middlemen As an example of this, Mr Wood instances the case of 667 villages of the Deoghur sub-division, in which the sum of Rs 45,521 was formerly extracted from the ryots, though the proprietor's rent-roll amounted to only Rs 30,393 The rent-roll has now been raised to Rs 40,760, but the rents payable by the ryots have been reduced more than 10 per cent

6 The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to learn that the settlement has generally been accepted as satisfactory by both landholders and ryots The pacification and contentment of the people, consistently with the just claims of the zemindars, was one of the main objects of the settlement, and it is the Commissioner's opinion that this has substantially been attained, and that the rent question will not in future be a source of agitation and disquietude The Lieutenant-Governor trusts that this anticipation will be realized, but it is of great importance that the local authorities should exercise vigilance to see that nothing whatever is levied beyond that which has been settled at this settlement, and that the fixity of tenure for which the settlement provides is maintained It is observed with satisfaction that the Commissioner seems to be fully aware that the permanent success of the operations depends upon the careful observance of this principle, and that he has issued stringent orders to prevent its being infringed

7 It was originally intended that in the Sonthal villages in which the community system was in force, the assessment should be made in a lump sum, without any definition of the amount payable by each individual ryot. It was left to the community itself to determine how much each member should be required to pay. The Commissioner, however, brought to the notice of Government that under this arrangement rents were falling into arrears, and that in villages which had been settled as long as two years ago, no attempt had been made to apportion the settlement jumma among the ryots. The Lieutenant-Governor accordingly sanctioned, in April last, a set of rules drawn up by the Commissioner, according to which a rent-roll will be prepared in every community village by a punchayet chosen on behalf of the headmen and the ryots respectively, and this rent-roll will define the proportion of the total jumma which each ryot is to pay. Precautions are taken to prevent the rent-roll being fraudulently or collusively prepared, and it is provided that no suit for arrears of rent shall be instituted otherwise than in accordance with the rent-roll. The practical working of these rules has not yet been tested by experience.

8 Occasion has been taken to improve the position and to increase the legitimate receipts of the class of village headmen. Formerly, these officials received no commission on their collections, and they remunerated themselves partly by unauthorized collections from the ryots, and partly by the appropriation of a larger share of the village lands than they were equitably entitled to hold. Sir George Campbell sanctioned their receiving a commission of one anna in the rupee, or 6¼ per cent on amount of their collections. The Commissioner has lately represented that this amount is insufficient, and the Lieutenant-Governor, recognizing the importance of maintaining the office of headman as a desirable post, which the most respectable ryots will be glad to accept, has authorized the increase of the commission to a maximum of 12½ per cent, on the understanding that the proportion paid by the ryots shall not be increased, and that the additional allowance (if any) shall be deducted from the net rental of the zemindar.

9 The total number of cases on the files of the officers of the Settlement Department was 17,065, including 3,122 cases pending from the previous year. Of these, 10,625 were disposed of, and 6,440 remained for decision on the 30th June. The appeals on the Commissioner's file were 154, of which 129 were decided. The greater number of the cases were for restoration to possession, and it is satisfactory to find that this is the case, as it affords evidence that one of the principal objects of the settlement has been fully understood by the people. It will be the duty of the Commissioner to see that the large arrears of pending cases are disposed of with as little delay as possible.

10 It was noticed, in the resolution on last year's report, that full information had not been given regarding the progress made in realizing the large arrears of rent claimed by the zemindars on account of former years. In this respect, the present report gives even fewer particulars than that of last year. It is stated generally by the sub-divisional officer of Godda that the arrears have been considerably reduced, but the Commissioner looks upon the estimate as too favourable. It is of the greatest importance to the successful working of the settlement that this question should be finally settled, and that payments made under the new arrangement which has now been concluded, should not be mixed up with claims for arrears under the old jummabundi. The Lieutenant-Governor therefore requests that the Commissioner will submit a statement showing, separately for each year from 1281, the amount of each year's claim, the total realized up to the 31st August 1876, and the nature of the measures in progress for the collection of the unrealized balance.

11 The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to observe that the Commissioner has in general been able to speak in very favourable terms of the exertions and services of the Assistant Settlement Officers and Sub-Deputy Collectors who have been engaged in the settlement work during the past season. To the Settlement Officer, Mr. Browne Wood, the special acknowledgments of Government are due for the energy and ability which he has displayed in the conduct of the operations.

12 In the concluding paragraph of his report, the Commissioner adverts to the general result of the Sonthal Pergunnahs settlement He considers in effect that the procedure, though unavoidably summary, does yet involve as little hardship as possible, while substantially the settlement has been an unmitigated benefit to the agricultural community, so that all classes are disposed to accept it without opposition The Lieutenant-Governor cannot assent to the Commissioner's remark that the settlement has temporarily deprived the zemindars of the free control of their property The powers and duties of a landlord are not confined to the mere right to demand an enhanced rental, and the Lieutenant Governor trusts that the zemindars as a body will show their recognition of the advantages which the settlement confers on them, by exerting for the improvement of the country the legitimate influence which belongs to their position as proprietors And further, the settlement has given the zemindars a well-determined rent-roll for a somewhat lesser amount which can and will be realized, instead of an undetermined rent-roll of a nominally larger amount which never was and never could be realized Obviously the former of the two alternatives is best for both landlord and tenant As regards the mass of the people, experience only can show to what extent the beneficial effects which are anticipated from the settlement will be realized It is not to be expected that discontent and agitation will entirely disappear, or that the settlement will prove in all cases an effectual safeguard against oppression, or a sufficient inducement to the cultivation of habits of industry and frugality But the Government and its officers will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that an earnest effort has been made to carry out an important social and economic reform, to reconcile interests which appeared to be in conflict, without doing injustice to the fair claims of either party, to encourage the people to be provident, by assuring to them the enjoyment of the fruits of their labor, and to dispose them to be loyal, by placing their rights under the protection of the authority of Government

RESOLUTION ON THE BENGAL FOREST ADMINISTRATION REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1875-76

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT—FORESTS

Calcutta, the 26th September 1876

READ—

The Progress Report of Forest Administration in Bengal for the year 1875-76

The rapid progress which is being made in the development and working of the Forest Department in the Lower Provinces is shown by the increased importance attached in this report to the more advanced stages of forest conservancy Two years ago, the principal work of the department consisted in the examination of forest tracts with a view to the formation of reserves In the report of last year, the most prominent feature was the progress made in setting aside selected tracts as reserved forests In the present report, though it appears that considerable further additions have been made to the reserved area, the topic of principal interest is the improvement and working of the forests, and in future years these sections of the report will be of still greater importance than at present

2 The preliminary inspection work of the year has been confined to three tracts the fir forests on the western boundary of the Darjeeling district, the forests of pergunnah Rhotas in the Shahabad district, and a block of sal forest in the Sonthal Pergunnahs. Of these, the two last have been gazetted

as Government reserves after the close of the year The fir forests in Darjeeling are not the property of Government, but belong to Cheeboo Lama, the timber is of inferior quality, and there are no facilities for transporting it, so that the tract could not, under any circumstances, be profitably worked But it is of importance to check the denudation of these slopes on grounds connected with climate, with water supply, and with the prevention of landslips It is not proposed to take these forests under the direct charge of the department, but to use the influence of Government in inducing the proprietor to adopt some simple measures of conservancy The forest tracts in pergunnah Rhotas and in the Sonthal Pergunnahs contain at present little mature timber, as the larger trees have been destroyed by indiscriminate cutting, but their situation makes it probable that they will prove extremely valuable hereafter, as there are excellent means of carriage both by land and water

3 The forests still remaining for exploration in Bengal are of no great importance It may be desirable to reserve some additional areas in the Chota Nagpore province Of the other forests noticed in the 18th paragraph of the Conservator's report, the most considerable is the Mudhoopore jungle in Mymensingh, but no part of this is the property of Government

4 The progress made during the year in the formation of reserved State forests is tabulated by the Conservator as follows —

Divisions	In square miles			Remarks
	Area at the beginning of the year 1875-76	Area added during the year	Total at the end of the year 1875-76
Darjeeling	106		106
Julpigoree	129	30	159
Palamow		151	151
Sunderbuns	885	314	1,199
Chittagong	347	223	570
Singbhoom		400	400	Rough estimate
Total	1,467	1,118	2,585

It will thus be seen that two new divisions, Palamow and Singbhoom, were formed in course of the year, and that the reserved area was increased by 1,181 square miles These figures do not include the Shahabad and Sonthal Pergunnahs reserves, which were gazetted after the year had closed

5 In the Julpigoree division the Apalchand reserve, of 30 square miles, was gazetted in September 1875 It is situated on the left bank of the river Teesta, about 15 miles above the town of Julpigoree The forest consists principally of sal, sissu, and khair there is a great demand for timber in the neighbourhood, and any surplus can readily be floated down the Teesta to the Berhampooter The details of the working plan of this reserve have not yet been completed

6 The Palamow reserve was gazetted in August 1875 A detailed account of this reserve, with a list of the trees found in it, is given in Appendix A to the Conservator's report The greater part of the tract is covered with sal forest, but there are at present few trees of large dimensions, and the reserve will require a rest of some years before any regular system of cutting can be introduced There is convenient water-carriage for the produce of this reserve by means of the river Koel, which falls into the Ganges not far from the town of Arrah

7 In the Soonderbuns division an additional block of 314 square miles was gazetted in August 1875, principally with the object of obtaining a well-defined natural boundary for the reserved tract But the experience of a few months showed that this object could not really be attained unless the Soonderbuns of the Satkhira sub division in the 24-Pergunnahs were added to the reserve, and this was accordingly done after the close of the year The Conservator has recommended that the whole of the unleased area of the Soonderbuns should be placed under the Forest Department, and such a measure would no doubt make the duty of protection and supervision easier than it is at present. But the Lieutenant-Governor is of opinion that the public convenience requires that the reserved tract should be limited to the smallest area compatible with the effectual preservation of the valuable soondri timber and he would be unwilling to enforce any restrictions which are not shown to be necessary to the accomplishment of this object. It is therefore probable that no further additions will be made to the reserved area in the Soonderbuns.

8. In the Chittagong division, the Metamahari reserve of 223 square miles was gazetted in June 1875. The two most valuable trees in this réserve are the gurjun and the jarul, both of which species were in imminent danger of extinction from reckless cutting. The forest produce of the reserve will be taken down the Metamahari river to the regulation district of Chittagong, but a detailed working plan has not yet been prepared.

9. A new division has been formed in the Singbhoom district of the province of Chota Nagpore, consisting of about 400 square miles of the Government estate known as Sarunda Pir, situated between the Brahminee and Byturnee rivers. The reserve was gazetted in August 1875. The principal tree is the sál, and as the forest has not been much injured by cutting in past years, an immense number of magnificent specimens of this tree are to be found in the reserved area. There is not at present much local demand for timber, but there is water communication with Cuttack, and as the reserve is situated on a straight line between Calcutta and Bombay, it may hereafter become extremely valuable in the event of direct railway communication being opened between those two places. The demarcation of this tract has not yet been completed.

10. Under the heading of protection and improvement the Conservator reports that 30 prosecutions were instituted during the year against 73 persons. In 22 cases convictions were obtained against 41 persons, seven cases were dismissed, and one was pending at the close of the year. In the Soonderbuns reserve many cases in which the rules were infringed were suffered to pass without the prosecution of the offenders, as in past years the forests have been open to the public, and the Conservator was anxious that the new regulations should not be enforced in any way which might produce inconvenience or hardship to the boatmen and wood-cutters engaged in the traffic. The orders of the Conservator on this point have the entire approval of the Lieutenant-Governor.

11. It is remarked in the report that a special Forest Act for Chittagong is still under consideration. But it is understood that the Government of India have it in contemplation to amend Act VII of 1865 by an enactment which will be of general application, and if this is done, it will not be necessary to pass a special law for Chittagong.

12. Considerable progress has been made during the year in the demarcation of boundaries, especially in the Julpigoree and Chittagong divisions. The measures taken for the protection of the forests from fire were only partially successful, a result which is attributed to the specially dry weather which prevailed during the early months of 1876. In the Darjeeling division, the clearing of a fire path 50 feet broad, and the employment of special patrol parties, proved ineffectual to protect the Sivok and Muraghat forests. The extreme difficulty of saving plantations from destruction by fire in dry weather is graphically illustrated by an anecdote given in the report, which describes how a nursery in the Bamunpokri plantation in Darjeeling was entirely destroyed by a burning leaf, which dropped upon it in the presence of three officials of the Forest Department, whose utmost efforts were unable to master the conflagration which immediately burst forth.

13. Several new roads have been constructed during the year in the Julpigoree and Darjeeling divisions. In Palamow it is stated that the existing roads are sufficient, and in the Soonderbuns and Chittagong the communication is by water. A number of rest-houses have been erected for the accommodation of officers in charge of the reserves, and for the reception of inspecting officers on tour. The total expenditure on buildings and offices amounted to Rs. 3,913.

14 The area of the plantations has been increased from 427 acres to 490 acres during the year The teak plantations in Chittagong are reported to be very promising An important experiment is being made in the Darjeeling division, in the rearing of a number of seedlings of the ficus elastica, which are stated to be doing well A small bamboo plantation has been laid out in the same division by order of Government, with the object of ascertaining whether the bamboo can be successfully cultivated as a material for the manufacture of paper In the Soonderbuns an area of 100 acres has been set aside for the experimental cultivation of the baobab, but the seedlings were not actually planted till after the close of the year under review The Deputy Conservator expresses some doubt whether the locality will be found suitable for a fair trial of the experiment

15 The paragraphs of the report which treat of the yield of the forests show that 77,296 cubic feet of timber were brought to depôt during the year, against 54,320 cubic feet in the previous year There was, however, a falling off in the quantity sold, owing to the fact that most of the timber removed from the Buxa reserve reached the depôt towards the close of the year It is satisfactory to find that the net profit to Government on timber sold has increased in the Darjeeling division from 5 annas 10 pie to 6 annas 3 pie, and in the Julpigoree division from 6 annas 11 pie to 9 annas 1 pie per cubic foot A large number of narrow-gauge sal sleepers were supplied from the Darjeeling division to the Northern Bengal State Railway The Government timber operations were confined to the three divisions of Julpigoree, Darjeeling, and the Soonderbuns, but besides these a large quantity of material in the above three divisions and in Chittagong was removed from the forests by private persons under licenses and on payment of fees In Palamow no working operations were undertaken, as the forests require rest, but there were some small receipts on account of minor forest produce

16 The plan which has been adopted for the management of the Soonderbuns division is described in detail in the report Seven revenue stations were established, but this number proved to be insufficient, and three more stations have since been added Boats entering the reserve for the purpose of removing forest produce are required to take out permits at the station, and to pay tolls according to the maundage of the boat and the description of material taken The first permit was issued on the 11th December 1875, and the full number of seven stations was not completed till the 5th February 1876, so that the division was actually in working order for only about two months of the year But the returns show that during this period 4,528 permits were issued to 5,321 boats, and that 16,43,434 maunds of forest produce were removed, the tolls upon which amounted to Rs 29,000 Three-fourths of the whole quantity of produce consisted of firewood

17 The tolls in the Soonderbuns have purposely been fixed at very low rates The preservation of the soondri forests was the principal object with which the reserve was formed, and the rate on this wood is one anna per maund; but for all other descriptions of timber, fire-wood and minor produce, the toll is only one pice per maund It appears from the returns that two-thirds of the entire receipts were derived from boats belonging to the Jessore district, but no doubt a large proportion of the produce was subsequently exported Boats from Backergunge took 14,715 maunds of soondri timber, most of which was probably used for boat-building

18 The receipts and expenditure of the year as compared with those of 1874-75, give the following results —

	Receipts	Expenditure	Surplus
	Rs	Rs	Rs
1874-75	1,85,914	98,654	87,260
1875-76	1,98,274	1,39,086	59,188

It would thus appear that in 1875-76 there was an increase of Rs 12,360 in the gross receipts, but that the expenditure increased by Rs 40,432, so that the net surplus of the year was much smaller than that of 1874-75.

These figures, however, which are only those of cash receipts and payments, do not correctly represent the real financial result of the operations of the department during the year The actual value of the year's transactions, which is found by excluding from the account all items not properly belonging to the year, was Rs 1,93,609, and the real cost of the year's transactions, calculated on the same principle, was Rs 1,40,026, giving a balance of Rs 53,583 To this is to be added a sum of Rs 39,329, being the difference between the value of the stock in hand at the beginning and at the close of the year, and the net result of the year is thus shown to be Rs 92,912, being an increase of Rs 265 upon the net result of 1874-75, which was Rs 92,647 The large increase in the value of the stock in hand is due partly to timber brought to depôt in the Julpigoree division, and not disposed of, and partly to the purchase of seven elephants during the year There was a profit during the year on the operations of all the divisions except Palamow, in which (as has already been explained) it was not thought advisable to work the forests

19 The Conservator anticipates that the surplus will rise to about Rs 1,50,000 in the course of the next two years, but that much more than this cannot be expected for some time to come The receipts for the current year in the Soondurbuns are estimated at Rs 60,000, but there will be some necessary increase of expenditure

20 The Lieutenant Governor cannot close this review without again adverting to the remarkable development which the department has shown in the course of the last two years At the end of the year 1873 74, the separation of the province of Assam had removed from the administration of this Government the principal tracts which were then under the charge of the department There remained only the two divisions of Cooch Behar and Chittagong, and the entire reserved area amounted to a total of only 120 square miles The present report shows six divisions already established, with a reserved area of 2,585 square miles Five of these divisions are being worked at a good profit on the expenditure, and in future years a still larger surplus may be confidently looked for But the immediate pecuniary returns are of small importance, compared with the permanent benefit which these provinces will derive from the judicious protection of their principal forest areas The primary work of the department is to afford this protection, and thereby to ensure a continuous supply of timber and other forest produce, which would speedily be destroyed if the consumption of it were altogether unchecked It is perhaps not too much to say that there is no branch of the public service which confers a greater direct benefit on the country than the operations of the Forest Department

21 The Lieutenant Governor cordially acknowledges the energy and ability with which the Forest Department in Bengal has been administered by the Conservator, and he is glad that Dr Schlich's services have lately been recognized by his promotion to a higher grade The subordinate officers of the department are favourably noticed in the report The Deputy Conservator, Mr Home, deserves much credit for his efficient management of the difficult duties of the Soonderbuns division, and Mr Johnston, Assistant Conservator, rendered good service in the examination of the new reserves in Shahabad and in the Sonthal Pergunnahs
